

MT. STERLING ADVOCATE.

A WEEKLY JOURNAL, IDENTICAL IN INTEREST WITH ITS OWN PEOPLE.

VOL. VI

MT. STERLING, KENTUCKY, TUESDAY, SEPT. 10, 1895.

NO. 7

School Books.

We have brought on the largest stock of SCHOOL BOOKS and School Supplies ever brought to this city. Therefore, we can sell you cheaper than anyone else. Don't fail to get our prices.

W. S. LLOYD,

9 S. Maysville Street

Mt. Sterling, Ky.

New Dress Goods

ORGANIZED.

THE YOUNG MEN'S DEMOCRATIC CLUB.

Effects A Permanent Organization.

The Young Men's Democratic Club of this country met pursuant to adjournment on Saturday afternoon and effected a permanent organization. They expect to enroll every young Democrat in the county in their ranks and their work will be heard from in November, "you bet".

The following is a report of the president:

On motion of the report of Committee on Constitution and By-laws adopted, which was as follows:

CONSTITUTION OF THE YOUNG MEN'S MONTGOMERY COUNTY DEMOCRATIC CLUB.

Article 1.—We, the undersigned of Montgomery County Kentucky believing in the doctrines and traditions of Democratic government and desiring to unite our energies and constant efforts with the work of the Democratic Party, in our State and County, hereby declare our purpose to do so by the organization of this The Young Men's Montgomery County Democratic Club.

Article 2.—The object of this organization will be at all times to keep down strife and differences that may arise among members of the party, to support and assist the nominees of the party and to aid in every way to secure their election, to conduct a campaign of education on Democratic principles, to procure Democratic speakers and distribute Democratic literature among the people.

Article 3.—All voters of Montgomery County who desire to affiliate with the Democratic party and express a determination to do so shall be eligible to membership in this club and may become members by signing this constitution.

Article 4.—The officers of this club shall be a President, a Vice-President from each voting precinct in the County, a Secretary and a Treasurer.

Article 5.—The full control and management of the affairs of this Club shall be vested in an Executive Committee which shall consist of the President and Vice-President of this Club, any five of whom shall constitute a quorum for all purposes.

The President shall be chairman of the Executive Committee.

Article 6.—All officers shall be elected by the members of the Club for a period of one year, except that the officers first elected under this constitution, upon its organization shall hold office until the first Saturday in August 1896 when their successors shall be elected. All vacancies in office shall be filled by the Executive Committee until the next annual election.

Article 7.—The regular sessions of this Club shall be on the first and third Saturdays in the months of August, September and October in each year, at 2 o'clock p. m. at the Court-House. The President or any three members of the Executive Committee may at any time or place call extra session of the Club.

H. R. Prewitt,
C. D. Grubbs,
W. B. White,
Chas. B. Duerson,
Geo. W. Baird.

On motion the report of the Committee on permanent organization was adopted which was as follows:

To the Montgomery County Democratic Club. We, your Committee appointed to report officers for the Club, beg leave to report that we have selected the following members for its government, viz:

President, W. A. Dehaven.

Vice Pres. 1st Ward, Squire Turner
" 2nd Ward A. S. Johnson
" 3rd Ward, W. B. White
" 4th Ward, James Conroy
" Beans, O. O. Cockrell
" Grassy Lick, C. H. Donnhue.

Vice Pres. Aaron's Run, Jas. Stockdale.

Vice Pres. Howard's Mill, John Montjoy.

Vice Pres. Harts, A. W. Hamilton
" Spener, E. Coons
" Camargo, J. S. Bogie
" Jeffersonville, S. Anderson
" Lewis, Ed. Prewitt.

Secretary, Geo. W. Baird.
Treasurer, C. H. Pety.

Very Respectfully,
H. Clay McKee, Chairman,

J. H. Hazelrigg,
T. P. Martin
Ben. R. Turner
J. C. B. Duff
Committee.

The K. W. C. at Winchester opened on last Tuesday with about one hundred pupils. Dr. Pierce, the new President, is using all possible means to complete the college building and when this is done, Winchester will have one of the handsomest school buildings in the State. The K. W. C. has a faculty of eight efficient teachers. The people of Winchester appreciate the advantage of having a college of such a character in their midst and are very kind and hospitable to the students. This year opens with prospects for the most prosperous in the history of the institution.

NOTES.

The athletes are very much interested in the "Fall" game and are making preparations for the coming season.

This college had a splendid baseball team last season and they expect to better it next.

The Y. M. C. A. of this college is an important feature.

The college will soon be fitted up with a gymnasium with all the necessary apparatus.

WONDERFUL.

Some people talk of hard times, but to those who labor hard such times are obviated. The Wrought Iron Range Co. of St. Louis, made and sold from their factory in St. Louis in the month of August, 42 car loads of ranges, averaging from 6 to 72 to the car-load, which is more than any one company sold in a year in the United States. From this point Mr. L. P. Lac has sold more than four car loads in this and adjoining counties from wagons, and in a few weeks will close out the last load. The range is constructed on scientific principles and is strictly a wrought iron range.

One of them placed in a neighborhood is such an advertisement that every other housekeeper who is able to own one will buy. It is a quick and economic cooker, and every utensil used is made of the best material. Mr. Lac closed with the success with which he is meeting, and stands ready to prove every assertion he makes in regard to his range.

A Great German's Prescription. Diseased blood, constipation, and kidney, liver and bowel troubles are cured by Karl's Clover Root Tea, for sale by Thomas Kennedy.

Lost.

On Owingsville pike or in this city a round piece of fringed linen, heavily embroidered in violet. Finder will please return to this office and secure reward.

The Baptist Sunday school will be held in the Circuit Court room until the completion of the Baptist church.

Ex-Senator B. F. Cockrell sold to

Mr. James Turley his splendid farm

of 500 acres 1/2 miles south of town at

$5 per acre cash. Possession given Oct. 15. This is one of the most desirable farms in the country.

Ex-Senator B. F. Cockrell sold to

Mr. James Turley his splendid farm

of 500 acres 1/2 miles south of town at

$5 per acre cash. Possession given Oct. 15. This is one of the most desirable farms in the country.

Ex-Senator B. F. Cockrell sold to

Mr. James Turley his splendid farm

of 500 acres 1/2 miles south of town at

$5 per acre cash. Possession given Oct. 15. This is one of the most desirable farms in the country.

Ex-Senator B. F. Cockrell sold to

Mr. James Turley his splendid farm

of 500 acres 1/2 miles south of town at

$5 per acre cash. Possession given Oct. 15. This is one of the most desirable farms in the country.

Ex-Senator B. F. Cockrell sold to

Mr. James Turley his splendid farm

of 500 acres 1/2 miles south of town at

$5 per acre cash. Possession given Oct. 15. This is one of the most desirable farms in the country.

Ex-Senator B. F. Cockrell sold to

Mr. James Turley his splendid farm

of 500 acres 1/2 miles south of town at

$5 per acre cash. Possession given Oct. 15. This is one of the most desirable farms in the country.

Ex-Senator B. F. Cockrell sold to

Mr. James Turley his splendid farm

of 500 acres 1/2 miles south of town at

$5 per acre cash. Possession given Oct. 15. This is one of the most desirable farms in the country.

Ex-Senator B. F. Cockrell sold to

Mr. James Turley his splendid farm

of 500 acres 1/2 miles south of town at

$5 per acre cash. Possession given Oct. 15. This is one of the most desirable farms in the country.

Ex-Senator B. F. Cockrell sold to

Mr. James Turley his splendid farm

of 500 acres 1/2 miles south of town at

$5 per acre cash. Possession given Oct. 15. This is one of the most desirable farms in the country.

Ex-Senator B. F. Cockrell sold to

Mr. James Turley his splendid farm

of 500 acres 1/2 miles south of town at

$5 per acre cash. Possession given Oct. 15. This is one of the most desirable farms in the country.

Ex-Senator B. F. Cockrell sold to

Mr. James Turley his splendid farm

of 500 acres 1/2 miles south of town at

$5 per acre cash. Possession given Oct. 15. This is one of the most desirable farms in the country.

Ex-Senator B. F. Cockrell sold to

Mr. James Turley his splendid farm

of 500 acres 1/2 miles south of town at

$5 per acre cash. Possession given Oct. 15. This is one of the most desirable farms in the country.

Ex-Senator B. F. Cockrell sold to

Mr. James Turley his splendid farm

of 500 acres 1/2 miles south of town at

$5 per acre cash. Possession given Oct. 15. This is one of the most desirable farms in the country.

Ex-Senator B. F. Cockrell sold to

Mr. James Turley his splendid farm

of 500 acres 1/2 miles south of town at

$5 per acre cash. Possession given Oct. 15. This is one of the most desirable farms in the country.

Ex-Senator B. F. Cockrell sold to

Mr. James Turley his splendid farm

of 500 acres 1/2 miles south of town at

$5 per acre cash. Possession given Oct. 15. This is one of the most desirable farms in the country.

Ex-Senator B. F. Cockrell sold to

Mr. James Turley his splendid farm

of 500 acres 1/2 miles south of town at

$5 per acre cash. Possession given Oct. 15. This is one of the most desirable farms in the country.

Ex-Senator B. F. Cockrell sold to

Mr. James Turley his splendid farm

of 500 acres 1/2 miles south of town at

$5 per acre cash. Possession given Oct. 15. This is one of the most desirable farms in the country.

Ex-Senator B. F. Cockrell sold to

Mr. James Turley his splendid farm

of 500 acres 1/2 miles south of town at

$5 per acre cash. Possession given Oct. 15. This is one of the most desirable farms in the country.

Ex-Senator B. F. Cockrell sold to

Mr. James Turley his splendid farm

of 500 acres 1/2 miles south of town at

$5 per acre cash. Possession given Oct. 15. This is one of the most desirable farms in the country.

Ex-Senator B. F. Cockrell sold to

Mr. James Turley his splendid farm

of 500 acres 1/2 miles south of town at

$5 per acre cash. Possession given Oct. 15. This is one of the most desirable farms in the country.

Ex-Senator B. F. Cockrell sold to

Mr. James Turley his splendid farm

of 500 acres 1/2 miles south of town at

$5 per acre cash. Possession given Oct. 15. This is one of the most desirable farms in the country.

Ex-Senator B. F. Cockrell sold to

Mr. James Turley his splendid farm

of 500 acres 1/2 miles south of town at

$5 per acre cash. Possession given Oct. 15. This is one of the most desirable farms in the country.

Ex-Senator B. F. Cockrell sold to

Mr. James Turley his splendid farm

of 500 acres 1/2 miles south of town at

$5 per acre cash. Possession given Oct. 15. This is one of the most desirable farms in the country.

Ex-Senator B. F. Cockrell sold to

Mr. James Turley his splendid farm

of 500 acres 1/2 miles south of town at

$5 per acre cash. Possession given Oct. 15. This is one of the most desirable farms in the country.

Ex-Senator B. F. Cockrell sold to

Mr. James Turley his splendid farm

of 500 acres 1/2 miles south of town at

$5 per acre cash. Possession given Oct. 15. This is one of the most desirable farms in the country.

Ex-Senator B. F. Cockrell sold to

Mr. James Turley his splendid farm

of 500 acres 1/2 miles south of town at

$5 per acre cash. Possession given Oct. 15. This is one of the most desirable farms in the country.

Ex-Senator B. F. Cockrell sold to

Mr. James Turley his splendid farm

of 500 acres 1/2 miles south of town at

$5 per acre cash. Possession given Oct. 15. This is one of the most desirable farms in the country.

Ex-Senator B. F. Cockrell sold to

Mr. James Turley his splendid farm

of 500 acres 1/2 miles south of town at

$5 per acre cash. Possession given Oct. 15. This is one of the most desirable farms in the country.

Ex-Senator B. F. Cockrell sold to

Mr. James Turley his splendid farm

of 500 acres 1/2 miles south of town at

$5 per acre cash. Possession given Oct. 15. This is one of the most desirable farms in the country.

Ex-Senator B. F. Cockrell sold to

Mr. James Turley his splendid farm

of 500 acres 1/2 miles south of town at

$5 per acre cash. Possession given Oct. 15. This is one of the most desirable farms in the country.

Ex-Senator B. F. Cockrell sold to

Mr. James Turley his splendid farm

of 500 acres 1/2 miles south of town at

$5 per acre cash. Possession given Oct. 15. This is one of the most desirable farms in the country.

Ex-Senator B. F. Cockrell sold to

Mr. James Turley his splendid farm

of 500 acres 1/2 miles south of town at

$5 per acre cash. Possession given Oct. 15. This is one of the most desirable farms in the country.

Ex-Senator B. F. Cockrell sold to

Mr. James Turley his splendid farm

of 500 acres 1/2 miles south of town at

$5 per acre cash. Possession given Oct. 15. This is one of the most desirable farms in the country.

Ex-Senator B. F. Cockrell sold to

Mr. James Turley his splendid farm

of 500 acres 1/2 miles south of town at

$5 per acre cash. Possession given Oct. 15. This is one of the most desirable farms in the country.

Ex-Senator B. F. Cockrell sold to

Mr. James Turley his splendid farm

of 500 acres 1/2 miles south of town at

$5 per acre cash. Possession given Oct. 15. This is one of the most desirable farms in the country.

Ex-Senator B. F. Cockrell sold to

Mr. James Turley his splendid farm

of 500 acres 1/2 miles south of town at

$5 per acre cash. Possession given Oct. 15. This is one of the most desirable farms in the country.

Ex-Senator B. F. Cockrell sold to

Mr. James Turley his splendid farm

of 500 acres 1/2 miles south of town at

$5 per acre cash. Possession given Oct. 15. This is one of the most desirable farms in the country.

Ex-Senator B. F. Cockrell sold to

Mr. James Turley his splendid farm

of 500 acres 1/2 miles south of town at

$5 per acre cash. Possession given Oct. 15. This is one of the most de-

MY SWEET.

My sweet, there's nothing to forgive. I still give a home in your debt. Who gave a home, if not the gift? On the other hand, I have seen fit to grant your love. I were more deeply debon. And yet who gains what he desired. Ay prove mine was better. And nothing to forgive. Yet, since I owe a debt. For your deere sake I'll do the rest. And very soon forget. —Pal Mall Gazette.

THE MORAL OF IT.

It was after sunset before Calkins succeeded in recouping the two experienced burros, who, desiring a break in their journey toward the desert, had withdrawn during the night and found respite in the dense pine oak brush on the neighbor's land.

The two came about that the ruddy light of Calkins' campfire again attracted us. The conversation took a wide range at first, but approached a focus when one of the party, the old lady with the black mits, referred to the generally prevailing drought. She mentioned in this connection a recent newspaper report of a church meeting in some arid section of the northwest, where general prayers for rain were offered with such immediate effect that the congregants, who were unprovided with umbrellas, were drenched on their way home.

"Parsely a coincidence," flippantly suggested Manton, a recent importation from the east.

"I regard it as a most striking illustration of the efficacy of all sincere and earnest prayer," reprovingly remarked the old lady with the mits.

"What do you say, Mr. Calkins?" inquired Manton unabashed. "I see you'll agree with me." "I do," said Calkins, after a brief pause, before expressing himself. "You're dead right, ma'am." he at length replied, ignoring Manton. "There's nothin' prayer won't do if you're in earnest and pray hard enough, and don't pray for too much nor too little, and stop right there. But you can handcap a good, strong, willin' prayer, same as you can anything else, and it's bound to balk and make trouble."

"I fear I do not grasp your meaning, Mr. Calkins," said the old lady with the mits, laying down her knitting and regarding Calkins with a look of puzzlement.

"Parsely I wasn't very clear, man, but I had in mind a queer experience of my own in the earnest prayer line some years ago, way up north in Trinity, which'll illustrate my meanin' better'n any explanation I can give." Calkins settled himself again out of the line of the sparks and smoke, which his late attention to the fire had provoked, and began:

"It was in the winter of 1851, and I was carryin' mail from Gorman's over to the Brown, Bear and Roundout camps—and made the round trip once a week on snowshoes. When I was at Gorman's, which was rather late in the day, I stopped with a Frenchman named Pirot, who worked a drift claim on the river. We hunked in a shake cabin, back of the hotel corral, and got along muddin' well for the first month we was together. Evenin' we'd generally turn up at the hotel, and after settin' by the fire with the rest in the saloon for awhile we'd finally drop into old man Gorman's private parlor and listen to Kittie Gorman play on the parlor organ. I always liked music, but I hadn't no facility at producin' it. So I'd just sit and listen to Kittie's play and Pirot, who had a big throaty voice, would no and singin' to Kittie's accompaniment.

"This was all well enough at first, but after two or three weeks I found it dull and uninteresting, just sittin' there on the cold, slippery, black haircloth sofa, with never a word nor a chance for one with Kittie, who seemed all took up with Pirot and the music, and only'd speak to me when she wanted another stick on the fire. Then, after awhile, I stopped goin' into the parlor and would sit in the saloon until bedtime, feelin' as if I was goin' to be sick. I stopped singin' and Kittie playin' away for dear life to keep up with him on the gasolin' old organ in the next room. Then I grew bitter, because I knew that while naturally Kittie liked me best of the two at the same time she was worldly minded like her father, the old man Gorman, and felt Pirot was a better match on account of his river claim, while I wasn't much account, from a ready money point of view. Then of course I had a fallin' out with Pirot about somethin' in particular, and then another, and the quarrelin', I'm free to allow, for Pirot said nothin', but just laughed in a way that made me madder, and I moved out of the shake cabin to adobe higher up the hill.

"Next day I started off before sun up on my regular trip with the mail for Brown Bear and Roundout. I always got the best start I could, so's to get well up the range while the crust was hard, and before the sun had been up long enough to mellow things up and make it awkard for me, for I wasn't very handy even yet with them long Norwegian snowshoes. I never stopped on the trail for nothin', bein' always more anxious to get through than to rest, but this part'lar mornin' I'm tellin' of I'd started out feelin' languid and dispirited, and I stopped. The mornin' I felt sort of dead beat out. My feet was cold and cramped from too tight bucklin' of the shoes, and altogether I made up my mind to sit down for a minute or two and get pulled together again before I started on.

"There wasn't much wind, and the sun was out warm and comfortable, and the idea of stretchin' out there on the snow for ten minutes' rest just suited me. I sat down with my back against the side of a low hill that came up through the snow, unbuttoned the shoes, unsnug the mail pouch from my shoulder and took out the little snack of bread and meat I'd brought along and which I generally eat on the way without makin' any special stop for it.

"While I was eatin', lookin' off down the slope I'd just climbed up, thinkin' what bad luck I'd struck all along the last few months, my eye caught on to some lines in the copy of the newspaper I'd wrapped round the lunch. It was the news of the great flood in the valley of the Arkansas, and of the Heavenly Snowshoe and of how quick this would all be known in the head when Kittie and old man Gorman learned of my bad luck. I went to the fire, and first I thought I could generally count on findin' the old man of an evenin', but they said he was in the parlor with Pirot and Kittie takin' in the music.

"When I went down to the hotel after I'd cooked my supper and cleaned up at the adobe, I could hear Pirot singin' and Kittie playin' accordin' to plan, as usual, but instead of rillin' me, as it had all along, I just laughed to myself when I thought of the 'Heavenly Snowshoe' and of how quick this would all be known in the head when Kittie and old man Gorman learned of my bad luck. I went to the fire, and first I thought I could generally count on findin' the old man of an evenin', but they said he was in the parlor with Pirot and Kittie takin' in the music.

"When I went in after knockin', they all looked surprised, and didn't seem very hearty, but I knew what had come to me and what was comin' to Pirot and didn't mind, but started in right away and told 'em what I'd found, and opened up the flour sack I'd brought my specimens down in, and laid 'em all out on the table under the light of the lantern, when the old man Gorman said any specimens I ever see. They all got round the table and admired 'em, and Kittie was very friendly, and the old man Gorman got very much interested and excited over it all, although he was generally pretty cold blooded about most things.

"There wasn't any more singin' or playin' than evenin', and pretty quick Pirot said good night and left, and lookin' cheerful. Old man Gorman asked me all sorts of questions about the size and dip of the ledges and the nature of the country, and when I told him what I'd found, he was all aglow with interest and asked to be left with me, and I went up to the adobe feelin' all toned up with satisfaction at the style in which my prayer was worked.

"Next day old man Gorman and me and our talk was all that was set, for I'd got up to the point where I had to break the snowshoe so hard, that—zip!—whiz!—like a bullet it was on its way down the hill. It made a clean shoot for about 50 feet, when every now and then spinnin' about, it would strike a rock and stop, and then stoped altogether, held fast sittin' in any furth' by the cropin'.

"Well, man, while that snowshoe was pinocetin' down the slope, I was that surprised and mad all through that, although I'd just been within in prayer, as you might say, I lost no line of langage that if I'd been any stop or feelin' to that snowshoe would have brought up within 50 feet. I mention this with regret, ma'am, because I feel now that if I hadn't been moved to make them remarks, just fresh on top of the prayer, things would have turned out different. But, bein' young and bein' headed and thoughtless, of course, I didn't look ahead for consequences."

"There was nothin' to do but go to the ledge where the snowshoe lay, pick it up and the mail pouch and get on my way again. The edge was rotten with the weather and pretty well broke up already, and aside from the small pieces just knocked out of it there'd been one big chunk loosened up, which had rolled just away from the ledge and lay with the fresh break turned up to the sun and dazzlin' mo with its brightness."

"'Fol's a sort of sinkin' at the heart at all this, as though somethin' bad was goin' to happen to me. I wasn't nothin' of course, nor mice at all. That piece of rock was just criss crossed all over and through with coarse wire gold. I stood starin' at it a full minute before I could get it through my head that I was lookin' at rock that would go over $5,000 to the ton; that I was the discoverer and owner of that ledge, and that finding it just meant to me everything worth havin', includin' of course first and foremost riches and Kittie Gorman."

"While I stood there I recollect with a start that I was in a room with a man named Pirot and itty and Kittie Gorman was what I'd been prayin' for hard for five minutes before, and here it all was within reach to answer to that prayer, just as if it had been on tap, so to speak, all the time. I'd just turned that thought over in my mind, and I just sat there, I kept cool enough to put up monuments and a location notice all right, and christened the claim all right. 'Heavenly Snowshoe,' as bein' what appropriate to the situation.

"You can imagine, ma'am, I wasn't in no state of mind after this to keep on with the mail to Brown Bear and Roundout. I just wanted to get back to Gorman's and let 'em know about the strike. So I climbed up the hill again for the other shoes, rounded off some good specimens to show what I'd found and was back again at Gorman's a little after sunup.

"When I went down to the hotel after I'd cooked my supper and cleaned up at the adobe, I could hear my feelin's or how I expressed 'em when I heard all this and found it true, for that's neither here nor there. I could see, after I'd cooled down and reflected, just how it all come about. I'd hoodwinked myself for bad luck to strike Pirot, and by usin' the pointed language I've referred to so close on top of my prayer when the 'Snowshoe' went walzin' down, or show temper while it's trisin', it's just bound to go balky and make trouble for you." —Kansan City Times.

Ho! Costa Rica Fill the Order.

In addition to his duties as United States senator from Colorado, Edward O. Wolcott is the general counsel of the Denver and Rio Grande Railway. Of course he receives many applications for passes. A young lady living in the southern part of Colorado desired to visit Denver. She had a friend of her own sex in Denver who was a friend of Senator Wolcott's. The young lady wrote her Denver friend a long letter, sayin' she would like to visit the capital, and concluded it as follows, "I am your friend and Mr. Wolcott to send me a pass from Alamosa to Denver and return."

Of course there had to be a postscript, of which the following is a true copy:

"P.S.—I wish you would send me one of those Y. Z. corsets the kind you were when I saw you last. They are just too lovely for anything."

The Denver lady, in a moment of absentmindedness, turned the letter over, indorse a request to Senator Wolcott for a pass on the back there of it and mailed it to Mr. Wolcott's office.

The next day she received this reply:

"I enclose you a pass for your friend from Alamosa to Denver and return, as requested. I would send her the corsets, but I don't know her number." —Chicago Tribune.

Utilizing the Power of Ocean Waves.

If we successfully utilize the power of the ocean waves, which has attracted attention for a great many years, and not a few of the latter day appliances are but modified imitations of what had been proposed and used generations ago. During a voyage from Stockholm to New York, more than 40 years ago, a ship's master fixed a spar aloft, one end of which was 10 or 12 feet above the top of the vessel's pumps and the other projected over the stern. To each end was fixed a pulley. He then fastened a rope to the pump rods, and after passing through both pulleys along the spar dropped it into the stern. To this spar was attached a 150-gallon cask containing about 60 gallons of water.

"Now my folks back in Missouri'd been workin' on an ocean liner, which was to be built for the Atlantic, and which has attracted attention for a great many years, and not a few of the latter day appliances are but modified imitations of what had been proposed and used generations ago.

"During a voyage from Stockholm to New York, more than 40 years ago, a ship's master fixed a spar aloft, one end of which was 10 or 12 feet above the top of the vessel's pumps and the other projected over the stern. To each end was fixed a pulley. He then fastened a rope to the pump rods, and after passing through both pulleys along the spar dropped it into the stern. To this spar was attached a 150-gallon cask containing about 60 gallons of water.

"This cask answered as a balanced weight, and every motion of the ship, and the cask, which was to be built for the Atlantic, and which has attracted attention for a great many years, and not a few of the latter day appliances are but modified imitations of what had been proposed and used generations ago.

"During a voyage from Stockholm to New York, more than 40 years ago, a ship's master fixed a spar aloft, one end of which was 10 or 12 feet above the top of the vessel's pumps and the other projected over the stern. To each end was fixed a pulley. He then fastened a rope to the pump rods, and after passing through both pulleys along the spar dropped it into the stern. To this spar was attached a 150-gallon cask containing about 60 gallons of water.

"This cask answered as a balanced weight, and every motion of the ship, and the cask, which was to be built for the Atlantic, and which has attracted attention for a great many years, and not a few of the latter day appliances are but modified imitations of what had been proposed and used generations ago.

"During a voyage from Stockholm to New York, more than 40 years ago, a ship's master fixed a spar aloft, one end of which was 10 or 12 feet above the top of the vessel's pumps and the other projected over the stern. To each end was fixed a pulley. He then fastened a rope to the pump rods, and after passing through both pulleys along the spar dropped it into the stern. To this spar was attached a 150-gallon cask containing about 60 gallons of water.

"This cask answered as a balanced weight, and every motion of the ship, and the cask, which was to be built for the Atlantic, and which has attracted attention for a great many years, and not a few of the latter day appliances are but modified imitations of what had been proposed and used generations ago.

"During a voyage from Stockholm to New York, more than 40 years ago, a ship's master fixed a spar aloft, one end of which was 10 or 12 feet above the top of the vessel's pumps and the other projected over the stern. To each end was fixed a pulley. He then fastened a rope to the pump rods, and after passing through both pulleys along the spar dropped it into the stern. To this spar was attached a 150-gallon cask containing about 60 gallons of water.

"This cask answered as a balanced weight, and every motion of the ship, and the cask, which was to be built for the Atlantic, and which has attracted attention for a great many years, and not a few of the latter day appliances are but modified imitations of what had been proposed and used generations ago.

"During a voyage from Stockholm to New York, more than 40 years ago, a ship's master fixed a spar aloft, one end of which was 10 or 12 feet above the top of the vessel's pumps and the other projected over the stern. To each end was fixed a pulley. He then fastened a rope to the pump rods, and after passing through both pulleys along the spar dropped it into the stern. To this spar was attached a 150-gallon cask containing about 60 gallons of water.

"This cask answered as a balanced weight, and every motion of the ship, and the cask, which was to be built for the Atlantic, and which has attracted attention for a great many years, and not a few of the latter day appliances are but modified imitations of what had been proposed and used generations ago.

"During a voyage from Stockholm to New York, more than 40 years ago, a ship's master fixed a spar aloft, one end of which was 10 or 12 feet above the top of the vessel's pumps and the other projected over the stern. To each end was fixed a pulley. He then fastened a rope to the pump rods, and after passing through both pulleys along the spar dropped it into the stern. To this spar was attached a 150-gallon cask containing about 60 gallons of water.

"This cask answered as a balanced weight, and every motion of the ship, and the cask, which was to be built for the Atlantic, and which has attracted attention for a great many years, and not a few of the latter day appliances are but modified imitations of what had been proposed and used generations ago.

"During a voyage from Stockholm to New York, more than 40 years ago, a ship's master fixed a spar aloft, one end of which was 10 or 12 feet above the top of the vessel's pumps and the other projected over the stern. To each end was fixed a pulley. He then fastened a rope to the pump rods, and after passing through both pulleys along the spar dropped it into the stern. To this spar was attached a 150-gallon cask containing about 60 gallons of water.

"This cask answered as a balanced weight, and every motion of the ship, and the cask, which was to be built for the Atlantic, and which has attracted attention for a great many years, and not a few of the latter day appliances are but modified imitations of what had been proposed and used generations ago.

"During a voyage from Stockholm to New York, more than 40 years ago, a ship's master fixed a spar aloft, one end of which was 10 or 12 feet above the top of the vessel's pumps and the other projected over the stern. To each end was fixed a pulley. He then fastened a rope to the pump rods, and after passing through both pulleys along the spar dropped it into the stern. To this spar was attached a 150-gallon cask containing about 60 gallons of water.

"This cask answered as a balanced weight, and every motion of the ship, and the cask, which was to be built for the Atlantic, and which has attracted attention for a great many years, and not a few of the latter day appliances are but modified imitations of what had been proposed and used generations ago.

"During a voyage from Stockholm to New York, more than 40 years ago, a ship's master fixed a spar aloft, one end of which was 10 or 12 feet above the top of the vessel's pumps and the other projected over the stern. To each end was fixed a pulley. He then fastened a rope to the pump rods, and after passing through both pulleys along the spar dropped it into the stern. To this spar was attached a 150-gallon cask containing about 60 gallons of water.

"This cask answered as a balanced weight, and every motion of the ship, and the cask, which was to be built for the Atlantic, and which has attracted attention for a great many years, and not a few of the latter day appliances are but modified imitations of what had been proposed and used generations ago.

"During a voyage from Stockholm to New York, more than 40 years ago, a ship's master fixed a spar aloft, one end of which was 10 or 12 feet above the top of the vessel's pumps and the other projected over the stern. To each end was fixed a pulley. He then fastened a rope to the pump rods, and after passing through both pulleys along the spar dropped it into the stern. To this spar was attached a 150-gallon cask containing about 60 gallons of water.

"This cask answered as a balanced weight, and every motion of the ship, and the cask, which was to be built for the Atlantic, and which has attracted attention for a great many years, and not a few of the latter day appliances are but modified imitations of what had been proposed and used generations ago.

"During a voyage from Stockholm to New York, more than 40 years ago, a ship's master fixed a spar aloft, one end of which was 10 or 12 feet above the top of the vessel's pumps and the other projected over the stern. To each end was fixed a pulley. He then fastened a rope to the pump rods, and after passing through both pulleys along the spar dropped it into the stern. To this spar was attached a 150-gallon cask containing about 60 gallons of water.

"This cask answered as a balanced weight, and every motion of the ship, and the cask, which was to be built for the Atlantic, and which has attracted attention for a great many years, and not a few of the latter day appliances are but modified imitations of what had been proposed and used generations ago.

"During a voyage from Stockholm to New York, more than 40 years ago, a ship's master fixed a spar aloft, one end of which was 10 or 12 feet above the top of the vessel's pumps and the other projected over the stern. To each end was fixed a pulley. He then fastened a rope to the pump rods, and after passing through both pulleys along the spar dropped it into the stern. To this spar was attached a 150-gallon cask containing about 60 gallons of water.

"This cask answered as a balanced weight, and every motion of the ship, and the cask, which was to be built for the Atlantic, and which has attracted attention for a great many years, and not a few of the latter day appliances are but modified imitations of what had been proposed and used generations ago.

"During a voyage from Stockholm to New York, more than 40 years ago, a ship's master fixed a spar aloft, one end of which was 10 or 12 feet above the top of the vessel's pumps and the other projected over the stern. To each end was fixed a pulley. He then fastened a rope to the pump rods, and after passing through both pulleys along the spar dropped it into the stern. To this spar was attached a 150-gallon cask containing about 60 gallons of water.

"This cask answered as a balanced weight, and every motion of the ship, and the cask, which was to be built for the Atlantic, and which has attracted attention for a great many years, and not a few of the latter day appliances are but modified imitations of what had been proposed and used generations ago.

"During a voyage from Stockholm to New York, more than 40 years ago, a ship's master fixed a spar aloft, one end of which was 10 or 12 feet above the top of the vessel's pumps and the other projected over the stern. To each end was fixed a pulley. He then fastened a rope to the pump rods, and after passing through both pulleys along the spar dropped it into the stern. To this spar was attached a 150-gallon cask containing about 60 gallons of water.

"This cask answered as a balanced weight, and every motion of the ship, and the cask, which was to be built for the Atlantic, and which has attracted attention for a great many years, and not a few of the latter day appliances are but modified imitations of what had been proposed and used generations ago.

"During a voyage from Stockholm to New York, more than 40 years ago, a ship's master fixed a spar aloft, one end of which was 10 or 12 feet above the top of the vessel's pumps and the other projected over the stern. To each end was fixed a pulley. He then fastened a rope to the pump rods, and after passing through both pulleys along the spar dropped it into the stern. To this spar was attached a 150-gallon cask containing about 60 gallons of water.

"This cask answered as a balanced weight, and every motion of the ship, and the cask, which was to be built for the Atlantic, and which has attracted attention for a great many years, and not a few of the latter day appliances are but modified imitations of what had been proposed and used generations ago.

"During a voyage from Stockholm to New York, more than 40 years ago, a ship's master fixed a spar aloft, one end of which was 10 or 12 feet above the top of the vessel's pumps and the other projected over the stern. To each end was fixed a pulley. He then fastened a rope to the pump rods, and after passing through both pulleys along the spar dropped it into the stern. To this spar was attached a 150-gallon cask containing about 60 gallons of water.

"This cask answered as a balanced weight, and every motion of the ship, and the cask, which was to be built for the Atlantic, and which has attracted attention for a great many years, and not a few of the latter day appliances are but modified imitations of what had been proposed and used generations ago.

"During a voyage from Stockholm to New York, more than 40 years ago, a ship's master fixed a spar aloft, one end of which was 10 or 12 feet above the top of the vessel's pumps and the other projected over the stern. To each end was fixed a pulley. He then fastened a rope to the pump rods, and after passing through both pulleys along the spar dropped it into the stern. To this spar was attached a 150-gallon cask containing about 60 gallons of water.

"This cask answered as a balanced weight, and every motion of the ship, and the cask, which was to be built for the Atlantic, and which has attracted attention for a great many years, and not a few of the latter day appliances are but modified imitations of what had been proposed and used generations ago.

"During a voyage from Stockholm to New York, more than 40 years ago, a ship's master fixed a spar aloft, one end of which was 10 or 12 feet above the top of the vessel's pumps and the other projected over the stern. To each end was fixed a pulley. He then fastened a rope to the pump rods, and after passing through both pulleys along the spar dropped it into the stern. To this spar was attached a 150-gallon cask containing about 60 gallons of water.

"This cask answered as a balanced weight, and every motion of the ship, and the cask, which was to be built for the Atlantic, and which has attracted attention for a great many years, and not a few of the latter day appliances are but modified imitations of what had been proposed and used generations ago.

"During a voyage from Stockholm to New York, more than 40 years ago, a ship's master fixed a spar aloft, one end of which was 10 or 12 feet above the top of the vessel's pumps and the other projected over the stern. To each end was fixed a pulley. He then fastened a rope to the pump rods, and after passing through both pulleys along the spar dropped it into the stern. To this spar was attached a 150-gallon cask containing about 60 gallons of water.

"This cask answered as a balanced weight, and every motion of the ship, and the cask, which was to be built for the Atlantic, and which has attracted attention for a great many years, and not a few of the latter day appliances are but modified imitations of what had been proposed and used generations ago.

"During a voyage from Stockholm to New York, more than 40 years ago, a ship's master fixed a spar aloft, one end of which was 10 or 12 feet above the top of the vessel's pumps and the other projected over the stern. To each end was fixed a pulley. He then fastened a rope to the pump rods, and after passing through both pulleys along the spar dropped it into the stern. To this spar was attached a 150-gallon cask containing about 60 gallons of water.

"This cask answered as a balanced weight, and every motion of the ship, and the cask, which was to be built for the Atlantic, and which has attracted attention for a great many years, and not a few of the latter day appliances are but modified imitations of what had been proposed and used generations ago.

"During a voyage from Stockholm to New York, more than 40 years ago, a ship's master fixed a spar aloft, one end of which was 10 or 12 feet above the top of the vessel's pumps and the other projected over the stern. To each end was fixed a pulley. He then fastened a rope to the pump rods, and after passing through both pulleys along the spar dropped it into the stern. To this spar was attached a 150-gallon cask containing about 60 gallons of water.

"This cask answered as a balanced weight, and every motion of the ship, and the cask, which was to be built for the Atlantic, and which has attracted attention for a great many years, and not a few of the latter day appliances are but modified imitations of what had been proposed and used generations ago.

"During a voyage from Stockholm to New York, more than 40 years ago, a ship's master fixed a spar aloft, one end of which was 10 or 12 feet above the top of the vessel's pumps and the other projected over the stern. To each end was fixed a pulley. He then fastened a rope to the pump rods, and after passing through both pulleys along the spar dropped it into the stern. To this spar was attached a 150-gallon cask containing about 60 gallons of water.

"This cask answered as a balanced weight, and every motion of the ship, and the cask, which was to be built for the Atlantic, and which has attracted attention for a great many years, and not a few of the latter day appliances are but modified imitations of what had been proposed and used generations ago.

"During a voyage from Stockholm to New York, more than 40 years ago, a ship's master fixed a spar aloft, one end of which was 10 or 12 feet above the top of the vessel's pumps and the other projected over the stern. To each end was fixed a pulley. He then fastened a rope to the pump rods, and after passing through both pulleys along the spar dropped it into the stern. To this spar was attached a 150-gallon cask containing about 60 gallons of water.

"This cask answered as a balanced weight, and every motion of the ship, and the cask, which was to be built for the Atlantic, and which has attracted attention for a great many years, and not a few of the latter day appliances are but modified imitations of what had been proposed and used generations ago.

"During a voyage from Stockholm to New York, more than 40 years ago, a ship's master fixed a spar aloft, one end of which was 10 or 12 feet above the top of the vessel's pumps and the other projected over the stern. To each end was fixed a pulley. He then fastened a rope to the pump rods, and after passing through both pulleys along the spar dropped it into the stern. To this spar was attached a 150-gallon cask containing about 60 gallons of water.

"This cask answered as a balanced weight, and every motion of the ship, and the cask, which was to be built for the Atlantic, and which has attracted attention for a great many years, and not a few of the latter day appliances are but modified imitations of what had been proposed and used generations ago.

"During a voyage from Stockholm to New York, more than 40 years ago, a ship's master fixed a spar aloft, one end of which was 10 or 12 feet above the top of the vessel's pumps and the other projected over the stern. To each end was fixed a pulley. He then fastened a rope to the pump rods, and after passing through both pulleys along the spar dropped it into the stern. To this spar was attached a 150-gallon cask containing about 60 gallons of water.

"This cask answered as a balanced weight, and every motion of the ship, and the cask, which was to be built for the Atlantic, and which has attracted attention for a great many years, and not a few of the latter day appliances are but modified imitations of what had been proposed and used generations ago.

"During a voyage from Stockholm to New York, more than 40 years ago, a ship's master fixed a spar aloft, one end of which was 10 or 12 feet above the top of the vessel's pumps and the other projected over the stern. To each end was fixed a pulley. He then fastened a rope to the pump rods, and after passing through both pulleys along the spar dropped it into the stern. To this spar was attached a 150-gallon cask containing about 60 gallons of water.

"This cask answered as a balanced weight, and every motion of the ship, and the cask, which was to be built for the Atlantic, and which has attracted attention for a great many years, and not a few of the latter day appliances are but modified imitations of what had been proposed and used generations ago.

"During a voyage from Stockholm to New York, more than 40 years ago, a ship's master fixed a spar aloft, one end of which was 10 or 12 feet above the top of the vessel's pumps and the other projected over the stern. To each end was fixed a pulley. He then fastened a rope to the pump rods, and after passing through both pulleys along the spar dropped it into the stern. To this spar was attached a 150-gallon cask containing about 60 gallons of water.

"This cask answered as a balanced weight, and every motion of the ship, and the cask, which was to be built for the Atlantic, and which has attracted attention for a great many years, and not a few of the latter day appliances are but modified imitations of what had been proposed and used generations ago.

"During a voyage from Stockholm to New York, more than 40 years ago, a ship's master fixed a spar aloft, one end of which was 10 or 12 feet above the top of the vessel's pumps and the other projected over the stern. To each end was fixed a pulley. He then fastened a rope to the pump rods, and after passing through both pulleys along the spar dropped it into the stern. To this spar was attached a 150-gallon cask containing about 60 gallons of water.

"This cask answered as a balanced weight, and every motion of the ship, and the cask, which was to be built for the Atlantic, and which has attracted attention for a great many years, and not a few of the latter day appliances are but modified imitations of what had been proposed and used generations ago.

"During a voyage from Stockholm to New York, more than 40 years ago, a ship's master fixed a spar aloft, one end of which was 10 or 12 feet above the top of the vessel's pumps and the other projected over the stern. To each end was fixed a pulley. He then fastened a rope to the pump rods, and after passing through both pulleys along the spar dropped it into the stern. To this spar was attached a 150-gallon cask containing about 60 gallons of water.

"This cask answered as a balanced weight, and every motion of the ship, and the cask, which was to be built for the Atlantic, and which has attracted attention for a great many

THE ADVOCATE.

Frankfort is excited over a series of burglaries.

J. J. Taylor, a dry-goods merchant of Danville, has assigned.

Uncle Sam's debt on the last day of August, less cash in the Treasury, was $12,924,323.

It cost a local master $15 for trying to flirt with a pretty girl in Eastern Park, Louisville.

Japanese are said to be conducting a brutal warfare in Formosa, not even sparing the women.

One man was injured and thirteen houses demolished by a cyclone at Huntington, Tenn., Tuesday.

Cholera is reported to be increasing in Japan and China, and the deaths in Pekin are said to exceed 1,500 a day.

The jury for the trial of Rev. Wm. E. Hinshaw, for the murder of his wife, has been selected at Danville, Ind., and the case is being tried.

A band of 12 masked highwaymen held up a carriage load of people in an Omaha suburb Tuesday morning and secured several hundred dollars.

Gen. Hardin addressed the voters of Winchester on Wednesday afternoon. A large crowd was in attendance. This county was well represented.

Newton Lane waived an examination on Wednesday on Wednesday and was held over to the Circuit Court. The prisoner was remanded to the jail at Frankfort.

The Treasury gold reserve fell below $100,000,000 mark Tuesday. The syndicate tried to its pledge deposited enough gold to raise the amount above the mark.

Johnson Williams, of Grassy Creek, Morgan County, is under arrest for detaining his wife, and the people of the neighborhood are considerably worked up over the case.

A Fact Worth Knowing.

Consumption, LaGrippe, Pneumonia, and all Throat and Lung diseases are cured by Shiloh's Cure. For sale by Thos. Kennedy.

Pierre Lorillard has apparently tired of America. He is making arrangements to go to England to reside. He has placed his magnificent houseboat on the market and it is said he intends disposing of his country seat at Hoboken, N. J. He has already parted with part of his breeding horses.

It has just been discovered that there exists a well organized brotherhood of beggars in New York City. This organization of professional mendicants is international in scope, and pays big dividends. The thing originated some years ago, when a general convention of beggars was held in Paris.

The Interior Department has decided that the value's secretions land on the lake shore in North Chicago does not belong to the United States, the title apparently being vested in the State of Illinois. The land was claimed by "squatters," and the controversy over it has made it a notable case in Chicago.

Since the new tariff bill went into effect, a little over a year ago, there have been established in this country 201 mills for the manufacture of textile fabrics, and of these thirty-eight are for the production of woolens.

Mr. W. O. Brady failed to tell the people of Kentucky before he flew the track whether or not he favors the repeal of the present tariff law and the substitution of the McKinley law for it; but that is about what Mr. Brady is—or was—for.—Louisville Times.

A Rebuke From the Pulpit.

Teaching in the Abby Canon, Wilmore told a good story of the celebrated Welsh preacher Christias Evans, who dared publicly to express his thankfulness for Jenny Lind's beautiful singing. A member of his congregation, a strait-laced Calvinist, standing on the steps of the pulpit, asked the preacher whether a man dying at one of Jenny Lind's concerts would go to heaven. "Sir," replied Mr. Evans, "a Christian will go to heaven wherever he dies, but a fool remains a fool even on the pulpit steps." Even the sober Abby congregation could hardly stifle its enjoyment of this repartee.—Westminster Gazette.

GEN. BUCKNER.

Withdraws From the Race For United States Senator.

TOR.

The Following is His Letter To His People.

"To the Democrats of Hart County: You paid me the high compliment last year of nominating me as your candidate for the United States Senate. In the resolutions accompanying your action, you deprecated as dangerous to the success of the party the interference on the part of Senatorial aspirants with legislative contests. The danger which you apprehended now confronts us. In many legislative districts personal interests are arrayed against party success, and though I have adhered strictly to the principle which you enunciated, candidates supposed to be favorable to me, are nevertheless, a target for opposition in the party. Under these circumstances I deem it my duty to recall my acceptance of the nomination in so generously gave me.

"Thus untrammelled with any candidacy of my own, I can more earnestly urge the support of the whole Democratic ticket and advocate the platform of principles as construed by every member of the party at the time of its adoption.

"S. B. BUCKNER.
"Glen Lily, Sept. 3, 1895."

CLAY FOR MEERSCHAUMS.

It is Mined in the Same Manner as Coal.

Rich deposits of meerschaum have been found twenty miles to the southeast of Eski Sheir, an important station of the Anatolian railway, says the New York Mercury. Judging from the number of pits, at considerable distance from each other, it must be extensive.

The localities where the most work is carried on are Sepstadi-Obudjani and Klemkidi-Obudjani.

The meerschaum is extracted in the same way as coal. Pits from 55 to 120 feet deep are dug, and as soon as the vein is struck, horizontal galleries, sometimes of considerable length, are made, but more than two galleries are seldom to be found in one pit.

The stone as extracted is called "ham-tash," or rough block, and is soft enough to be easily cut with a knife.

It is white, with a yellowish tint, and is covered with a clayey soil about one inch thick. In this state the blocks are purchased by the dealers on the spot, not by weight or measurement, but according to the approximate quantity, either per load of three sacks or per cart load, the price varying from $25 to $150 per load, according to quality.

These blocks are dried and subjected to certain preparations before being conveyed to Eski Sheir. Some of them are as small as a walnut, while others attain the size of a cubic foot. Those which combine regularity of surface and size are the best.

The manipulation required before they are ready for exportation is long and costly. The clayey soil is removed and the meerschaum dried. In summer exposure for four or five days to the sun's rays suffices, but in winter a room heated to the required temperature is necessary and the drying process takes eight or ten days. When dried the blocks are well cleaned and polished, then they are sorted into about twelve classes, each class being packed with great care in separate cases, and each block being wrapped in cotton wool. The bulk of the meerschaum is sent to Vienna, where it is worked and dispersed all over the world. Most of the finest specimens are sent direct to Paris.

Certain American dealers have visited Eski Sheir with the object of obtaining the raw article direct instead of through Vienna, thereby saving the higher custom-house duty payable on worked meerschaum. The quantity annually exported is put down at 8,000 to 10,000 cases.

Two Good Reasons.

There are two good reasons why Mr. Bradley will not be Governor of Kentucky. One is that the people will not elect him, and the other is that even if he was elected he would refuse to be inaugurated because of the noise and confusion that necessarily attend that public ceremony.

Most of the finest specimens are sent direct to Paris.

Certain American dealers have visited Eski Sheir with the object of obtaining the raw article direct instead of through Vienna, thereby saving the higher custom-house duty payable on worked meerschaum. The quantity annually exported is put down at 8,000 to 10,000 cases.

Two Good Reasons.

Ask your physician, your druggist, and your friends about Shiloh's Cure for Consumption. They will recommend it. For sale by Thos. Kennedy.

All Recommend It.

Ask your physician, your druggist, and your friends about Shiloh's Cure for Consumption. They will recommend it. For sale by Thos. Kennedy.

THE MANIA FOR UNIFORMS.

A Plain, Old Fashioned American Deplores the Military Tendency of Things.

An aged New Yorker, whose memory runs back to the first quarter of the century, spoke of a change which has occurred in his lifetime. "When I was a boy in New York," said he, "we used to buy a man who wore a uniform, excepting when there was a regimental parade, or when it was the Fourth of July, but the boys don't do that now. When I left the house today an uniformed letter carrier was at the door with my mail. Half way up the street an uniformed messenger boy was running on the other side of the street. I took an elevated car, the guard upon which was in uniform. I saw lots of coach drivers on Madison Avenue in livery, which is a private uniform. A gang of uniformed street sweepers were plying their brooms. A uniformed member of the National Guard marched past me. Lots of bicyclists, men and women, have taken to the wearing of a kind of uniform, rather queer looking, too sometimes. The Federal Supreme Court is not the only court in which the Judges now wear a judicial garb, which is a uniform. I went to a college commencement and saw all the students uniformed in mortar-board hats and togas. You can see clergymen clad in a part of their clerical uniform, such as the all-round collar and buttoned-up vest. The waiters and hall men at high-toned hotels are uniformed, and so are the women behind the counters in some stores. The fashionable evening dress is a uniform, and the stiffest of any.

"At first I did not like to see the adoption of the European custom in the place of the plain, old-fashioned American ways, but there does not seem to be any use in kicking. There was a kick against the police uniform now worn when it was introduced, and there is a kick against the uniforming of the letter carriers, and there has been a kick at every extension of the custom of wearing uniforms. The street cleaners did not like Colonel Wearing's idea of putting them in uniform a while ago. But not a kick against uniformity, in any case, has ever had any effect.

"I am getting to wish now that everybody was uniformed and that every business had its own particular uniform. I would have the Wall street uniform, the poet's uniform and distinctive uniforms for hotel keepers, editors, grocers, professional duders, custom tailors, lawyers, typographers, gas company men, club members, doctors, bricklayers and pullers-in. It would be very convenient. We would know something about a man at sight. The Wall street broker might wear a plug hat with a green coat; the hotel keeper a suit of sky blue; the doctor a dress of crapes; the grocer a white apron, washed every day, and the East Side barker should be allowed to carry a trumpet. There must be 30,000 or 40,000 uniformed people in the city, and the rest of us might as well be put in uniform. As it is now, you know a policeman when you see him, and a letter carrier and a street sweeper and a train guard and a liveried coachman and a messenger boy, and why should you not know a politician in white, or a retail druggist in the colors of all the bottles in his window?"—New York Sun.

The English of It.

There is a young Englishman staying in Philadelphia who makes his headquarters at a club, and one morning he overheard one of the members ask how he felt. "Oh, out of sight," was the response. The Englishman made a mental note of this, and determined to get it off himself at the first opportunity. The next day he met a friend, who offered the usual salutation. The Englishman's face broadened into a grin. Striking an attitude, he exclaimed, "Oh, you can't see me, old chap; you can't see me!"—Philadelphia Record.

Two Good Reasons.

There are two good reasons why Mr. Bradley will not be Governor of Kentucky. One is that the people will not elect him, and the other is that even if he was elected he would refuse to be inaugurated because of the noise and confusion that necessarily attend that public ceremony.

Most of the finest specimens are sent direct to Paris.

Certain American dealers have visited Eski Sheir with the object of obtaining the raw article direct instead of through Vienna, thereby saving the higher custom-house duty payable on worked meerschaum. The quantity annually exported is put down at 8,000 to 10,000 cases.

Two Good Reasons.

Ask your physician, your druggist, and your friends about Shiloh's Cure for Consumption. They will recommend it. For sale by Thos. Kennedy.

THE ADVOCATE,
ISSUED EVERY TUESDAY.

With the following is His Letter To His People.

ADVOCATE PUBLISHING COMPANY.

Tuesday, September 10, 1895.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For Governor—
P. WAT HARDIN,
Of Mercer County.For Lieutenant Governor—
R. T. TYLER,
Of Fulton County.For Auditor—
LUKE C. NORMAN,
Of Boone County.For Attorney General—
W. J. HENDRICK,
Of Fleming County.For Treasurer—
R. C. FORD,
Of Clay County.For Secretary of State—
H. S. HALE,
Of Graves County.For Register of Land Office—
GREEN B. SWANSON,
Of Wolfe County.For Commissioner of Agriculture—
JOE B. NALL,
Of Jefferson County.For Supt. of Public Instruction—
ED. PORTER THOMPSON,
Of Owen County.For Railroad Commissioner, 3d District—
G. R. KELLER, of Carlisle.For Representative, 9th Legislative District—
(Counties of Montgomery and Meade)—
W. E. HORTON.

The gratuitous insult offered the good people of Henry and surrounding counties in particular, and the State of Kentucky in general, by Col. Bradley will be so vigorously resented in November that the Republican candidate for Governor will be—use the euphonious expression of Uncle Moore Johnson of blessed memory—“lost in the fog and sunk in the abyss.”

If Mr. Bradley thinks, by running away from Gen. Hardin and canceling all engagements for joint debates, he will be allowed to “slip over the line and make his wild and untrue statements, unchallenged and unanswered, he is very much mistaken. He will have the opportunity to refuse very often to divide time with a Democratic speaker in discussing the issues of this campaign. He can refuse if he chooses so to do, but he will make small capital out of his soliloquy discussion. His methods and unfair and untrue statements will be so thoroughly exposed that his go-it-alone campaign will fall as flat as a cold pancake on a stone floor.

The Democratic nominee for Representative from this district is a business man who has, by his intelligent and honest attention to his affairs, won for himself the respect of all who know him. He will just as faithfully and intelligently look after the interests of the people when he goes to Frankfort as he has carefully guarded his own affairs. Mr. Frank Horton has stated that when he goes to Frankfort he goes there to represent this people, and that their interests and wishes shall be his care. He has stated time and again that he will be guided by the wishes of his constituents in the matter of his vote for United States Senator, no matter how much at variance these wishes may be with his individual inclinations.

Every man who knows Frank Horton, knows he is a man of his word. He does not pledge his word and then break faith with those to whom he has pledged that word. Frank Horton deserves, and will get, a roasting majority in November.

The State Central Committee has rightly emphasized the fact that the one issue before the people of the State in this campaign is: Shall the management of our State affairs be entrusted to the Democratic or the Republican party?

If any intelligent man, be his party affiliations what they may, will sit down and calmly and dispassionately review the history of the Republican party in the State governments of the South, he will instantly and emphatically declare that it would be an unpardonable crime for him to aid in placing our west interests in the hands of such a party. It is simply impossible for any party to be more honest or more intelligent than its average membership. About one-half of the voters in the Republican party in this State are negroes, and if there were not the many white illiterates to be found in its ranks to drag down the average, the negro voter would force the index finger away down the scale.

As a mere matter of business, no man with property interests at stake can afford to see the Republican party go into power in Kentucky. We don't want a repetition of what the State south of us suffered. Why, even with a Democratic State government, watch as the officials might, we have been unable to keep the paper idiot and witness free claims from the Republican Circuit Court districts, from being an open disgrace. If those same fellows had full run on the Treasury where in the name of decency would their stealings stop?

The inglorious desertion of the series of joint debates by Col. Bradley won for him the contempt of friends and foes alike. His childishly lame excuse for his cowardly run from Hardin has, if possible, intensified that contempt. The voters of the State resent the insult offered their intelligence when such an excuse was attempted to be palmed off on them. They know that Mr. Bradley's lame statement been true, he would have, all the more surely, stuck to his agreement, knowing that each howling down, would gain for him ten votes to every one his argument could secure. No! Poor Billy O. B. could not stand up before Gen. Hardin, and so, the O'-Bradley, he went.

How are the Mighty Fallen!

Lancaster, Kentucky, Sept. 7.—Col.

W. O. Bradley arrived home this afternoon, for the first time since his retreat from Eminence. It will be remembered that quite an ovation was given him on his return from the nominating convention, but this time neither drums, horns nor harps were heard, neither did spread-eagle orators appear, and no demonstration was made as he drove through town.

Gen. P. Wat. Hardin addressed the people at London on Saturday. Long before time to begin, the large courtroom was crowded by citizens from Laurel, Bell, Whitley, Knox, Clay, Leslie, Perry, Jackson, Rockcastle and Lincoln counties, while perhaps a thousand people were forced to remain on the outside. Mr. Hardin spoke for one hour and a half, during which he held the attention of every one in his audience. Gen. Hardin is doing some mighty effective work. His receptions all over the State are nothing short ofations.

It behoves every Democrat who has the interest of good government at heart to see to it that not only he himself is thoroughly acquainted with the issues in this campaign, but that his neighbor as well becomes keenly alive to all that it means, whether the Republican or the Democratic party controls the State affairs for the next four years. A little apathy just now on the part of Democrats may cost them many bitter hours of unavenged, and bring about a state of affairs that it will take years to remedy.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Grassy Lick.

James Wade sold to John Jones 15 acres of corn at $13.50 per acre in the field.

Miss Dannie Evans, of Clark county, was visiting Miss Mary Mason last week.

Mrs. James Gay is teaching school in Bourbon county near North Middletown.

H. F. Judy and wife, of Winchester, was visiting friends in our neighborhood last week.

Miss Lizzie Mason of Bremen, Tex., was visiting relatives in neighborhood last week.

M. B. Hadden sold to Morrison McCormick one pair of seven-year-old mares at $150.00.

A. Oar bought of Graves, Amix and Johnson, their crops of tobacco of about 18,000 lb. at 3 cts. ets. Kidd & Judy shipped them.

The series of meetings held at Sibley view by Elder Thomas have been largely attended. Several have joined the church.

D. G. Howell weighed 30 head of his fat cattle, average 1,515 lb. at 45 cts. Kidd & Judy shipped them.

Dr. Johnstone, of Pleasueville, who has been preaching for the Grassy Lick people, finished his conference here on last Sunday. These people are much attached to Bro. Johnstone and all hope that he may be returned by the conference which meets at Winchester on the 18th of this month.

Vacation is over and the boys and girls of this neighborhood are attending the following schools: Miss Marion Hadden, at Paris; Carrie Green, Georgetown; Mary Mason and Grace Morris, at Millersburg; Frank Palmer and Luther Mason, Kentucky Wesleyan college at Winchester; Archie Mason, Roy and Frank Morris, Shirley Hadden, Oliver Howell and Chas. Peed to Prof. Fowler; Smith Hurt, John McDonald, Willie Hunt, to Prof. Goodwin.

Levee.

Protracted meeting is going on at Kish's Baptist church this week. We have had an abundance of rain the past ten days, which will make the corn in this neighborhood.

There is at least one thousand bushels of charcoal now ready for tobacco men, two miles above this place.

There is a very good white oak mast this season, and it is something you seldom see, a good mast and a good crop of corn come together.

Douglas and Knox are talking of purchasing an interest in the Winchester telephone plant and if they do Mr. Dougill will move there and take charge of it.

I was out to Spout Springs last Sunday and found all kinds of stock in good condition. W. E. Heflin sold two sows and 16 pigs to a Madison county man for $30 dollars. Yearling steers and heifers were selling at from $2.25 to $2.50 per hundred. Shoots that weighed 70 pounds were worth 4 cents per pound.

There is some kind of varmunt that is in this neighborhood which paid Mrs. Thompson's hen house a visit a short time ago. It cleaned up the dogs, scratched and made a queer noise and scared Mrs. Thompson out of her wits. She came across it again in her corn field last week and she did not stand on the order of going, but went for home expecting moment to be attacked. She says it is about the size of a large dog and is of a brown color. Raymond Knox and some companions were out hunting last week and their dogs trailed it and struck one of the dogs, knocking it over, lancing the skin terribly. The dogs will not take hold of it. It eat a 25-pound turkey for Mrs. Bartlett a few nights ago.

Wade's Mill.

Harvey Rogers was in Paris Wednesday on business.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Turley died Wednesday morning.

N. P. Gay sold a lot of cattle to Simeon Well at 4, 4½ and 4½ cents; average, 1,503 b.s.

Misses Marion Hadden and Jane Rogers left yesterday to attend the Paris Classical Institute.

Virgil Moore and wife, of this place visited Mrs. Lucy Kidd, of near the mouth of Four Mile, the past week.

S. H. Gaitskill and wife, of McIntosh, Florida, were visiting relatives at this place. Mr. Gaitskill says it will be from four to six years before they will have another crop of oranges.

The trees that were frozen have been sawed off near the ground and sprouts are springing from their roots, these shoots grow faster than young trees that are set out.

Death of Mrs. Charlotte Smith.

Mrs. Charlotte Smith, a former resident of this city, passed away peacefully at 11:30 o'clock p. m., Sept. 2 at the residence of her son-in-law W. W. Gill, Lexington, Ky., in his 85th year. Four children survive her, Dr. W. A. Smith, of Woodford County, Mrs. W. W. Gill and Miss Eliza G. Smith, Lexington, and Mrs. T. M. Leach, of this city. She was laid to rest in the beautiful cemetery at Lexington, Sept. 3, by loving friends and relatives.

In Your Blood

Is the cause of that tired, languid feeling which afflicts you at this season. The blood is impure and has become thin and poor. That is why you have no appetite, cannot sleep. Purify your blood with Hood's Sarsaparilla, which will give you an appetite, tone your stomach, and invigorate your nerve.

Hood's Pills are easy to take, easy in action and sure in effect. 25¢.

Leila May, the bright little eight months old babe of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Turley died yesterday morning after an illness of barely two days at the home of her uncle, Robert Wade on Donaldson. She was a bright child and the heart broken parents have the sympathy of their friends in their deep bereavement.

THEY ARE
Stacked * Mountain * High!

Not a Crack nor Crevice from Cellar to Roof that is not Filled with a

GENUINE BARGAIN!
FOR OUR CUSTOMERS THIS FALL.

Never in our entire business career have we bought as many goods as we have this season. Our buyer, with bullion to back him, has searched all the markets, both East and West, with the tenacity of a bloodhound, and not a single bargain nor “good thing” has escaped his eagle eye.

Never in the history of Mt. Sterling have the people had the opportunity presented them to save money on their fall purchases as now. We shall offer them the advantage of Genuine Cash Prices. Goods bought for CASH DOWN and sold for CASH DOWN! You pay for nobody's bad debts. Our motto, strictly, “Underbuy, Undersell, Cash,” knocks out all competition and enables our customers to Get a Dollar's Worth for Every 100 Cts. They Spend With Us.

The large cities are not showing a more than we have just opened up and put on sale. This department is our banner department, and special attention is given to the selection of the stock. You will find Coatings and Wide Wale Serges, Plain and Storm Serges, Broadcloths, Henriettes, Crepons, Fancy Black Goods in all varieties, General Suitings, and every new weave in favor this season. Not a stone left unturned to make this stock one of the most complete, most attractive, and a trade-winner for the house.
COMPLETE LINE OF DRESS GOODS

Shoes.

Nearly one entire side of our house is devoted to our Shoe Department. Our Shoes were all bought before the advance in leather and our customers will get the benefit of our foresight, as we feel it our duty to look after their interest and save them dollars when we can. We have anything you want in Men's, Ladies', Children's, Misses' and Infants' Boots and Shoes, and we guarantee that our cash prices will save you 20 per cent on each and every pair we sell you.

Jackets, Wraps, Capes.

We will open up about the 20th of September a most beautiful line of Ladies', Misses' and Children's Jackets, Wraps and Capes, and in order to get the choice patterns in sizes to fit you, we give an early call and select them before they are gone, as the entire stock will consist of the very best and most fashionable garments out this season, and all ready sellers; no old carried-over Cloaks, all fresh and new.

Blankets and Comforts, at your own price.

You can buy Men's, Boys', Children's and Youths' Suits and Pants of Suits from us in All-wool, well made, good quality, stylish and nobly, for less money than shoddy trash would cost you elsewhere. Our customers utter ejaculations of amazement at the low cash prices we are asking for anything in our Clothing Department. They want to know “how we can sell them so cheap.” Our answer is simply: “Underbuy, undersell, cash on delivery.”

Blankets, Comforts.

Blankets and Comforts at your own price. They are piled up ceiling high and we positively have to move among the first things that go out, as these consume too much space. Come and see our Blankets and comforts and we'll save you enough money on them to buy you a nice full dress. Real good White, or Silver Gray Blankets, full 10½ size, pretty borders, will be sold at 45 cents per pair. Others in proportion just as cheap. Call early and see them.

HATS. Just received our fall stock of Men's and Boys' stylish Hats, in all the new shapes—Crushers, Alpines, etc.; all colors and prices. If you need a nice Hat for a very little money, call and get one.

NOTIONS. A trip through our NOTION DEPARTMENT will be a pleasure and a compensation to anybody. You will find anything in small Wares that ever a lady could ask for, and when you get to HOSIERY call a halt and price them all. Some rare bargains in store for you in this line. Come prepared to buy Hosiery enough for your whole family, for you certainly will feel like doing it when you have our prices on them.

UNDERWEAR. We thought of everybody when we bought Underwear, and knew they would all want a good thing for nothing. You need go no further, and when the price is mentioned on what you want, you won't want to go.

THE MANY ATTRACTIONS WE ARE NOW SHOWING. Is bound to crowd our store with customers, so when you come to the door and see the house crowded, don't pass on thinking you can't get waited on. Come in; we won't keep you waiting long, as we will have nice, accommodating salesmen to show you through and entertain you while in the house.

Thanking you for past patronage and hoping by honest, fair dealing to merit a continuance of same, we are respectfully

Corner Broadway and Main St.
Mt. Sterling, Ky. OLDHAM BROS. & CO.

In regard to School Books I wish to say I have a full stock and sell them at their listed prices, which is as cheap as they can be bought. I have the largest and best line of School Tablets in the city very cheap. Also pencils, pens, inks and stationary of all kinds. Call and see me.

Respectfully,
THOS. KENNEDY.

Young Man, Do You

know that you could earn much more than you do if you were equipped for business with a thorough up-to-date commercial education. The Mt. Sterling Female Seminary will open a night class for young men only, beginning September 16, 1895, in the Commercial and Shorthand courses. Hours—7:15 to 9:15 p. m. Terms—$30 per school.

J. L. TAIT, Principal.

Next Monday will be County court day.

The Kentucky Conference of the M. E. Church will meet with the church at Winchester on the 18th instant.

Rev. Everett Gill will preach at the Southern Presbyterian church next Sunday morning and Rev. W. E. Fer in the evening.

Bon's Creek Association of Baptists will meet with the Providence Baptist church in Clark county Tuesday the 17th instant. This association is organized in Virginia in 1780.

A FAIR TRIAL of Hood's Saraparilla guaranteed a complete cure. It is an honest medicine, honestly advertised and it honestly CURES.

Mr. C. A. Harris writes home from New Mexico that he is doing well and is improving with each succeeding day. This is good news to Charlie's many friends here.

Green H. Strother has received the contract for plastering the residence of George Nickell in Morehead. Mr. Mickell is erecting a nice two story frame residence.

Johnson's Aromatic Compound Cod Liver Oil with hypophosphites is invaluable in all serofulous affection, purifies the blood, builds up the appetite and makes sound flesh. Plot bottles $1.00 at J. B. Tipton's Drugstore.

A Baby's Life Saved.

"My baby had croup and was saved by Shillib's Cure," writes Mrs. J. W. Martin, of Huntsville, Ala. For sale by Thomas Kennedy.

Robert T. Benton, one of Mt. Sterling's brightest young men, who has been attending Central University at Richmond, Ky., for the past three years leaves for that place this evening to finish his course. Robert is studying for a professorship, but expects to make a specialty of Latin and Greek.

Eight extra trains of delegates and visitors passed through here Monday to attend the grand encampment of G. R. at Louisville. This morning the finest decorated train which has ever over the C. & O. will pass here about eight o'clock. The train is from Philadelphia and will carry the gold bug aristocrats of that section.

TO LOAN!

$3,500

On Real Estate security. Can get you the money in an hour's time.

Also have plenty of money to loan on tobacco.

A. Hoffman,
AGENT.

Chronic Nervousness

Could Not Sleep, Nervous Headaches.

Gentlemen—I have been taking your Restorative Nervine for the past two weeks and I cannot say enough in its praise. It has for I had almost given up hope of ever being well again. I was a chronic sufferer from nervousness and headaches. I was also troubled with nervous headache, and had tried doctors in vain, until I used your Nervine. MRS. M. WOOD, Ringwood, Ill.

Saved My Life,

Dr. Miles' Nervine Cures.

Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold on a positive guarantee. All druggists sell it at 6 bottles for 65, or will be sent, prepaid, on receipt of price by the Dr. Miles' Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Luther Redmond is quite sick with fever.

Miss Emma Weedon has gone to Cincinnati to attend school.

John Grone, of Louisville, was here last week on legal business.

Mr. J. D. Cockrell, of Cumberland Gap, Tenn., is here visiting friends.

Mr. James Swango of Hazel Green is in the city visiting the family of his uncle J. G. Trimble.

Mr. Ass B. A. Hors and Track editor of the ADVOCATE is in West Virginia on business.

Harry Schlegel, of Richmond, is visiting his uncle, A. Schlegel, on North Maysville street.

Mrs. J. J. B. Phipps and children, who have been visiting in London, Ky., returned home Tuesday.

Dr. Spencer Alexander and family, of Owingsville, spent Friday in the city, the guest of relatives.

Miss Iva Land returned on Sunday from a three weeks visit to friends and relatives in Bath county.

A. Schlegel left for Ottawa, Ohio, Wednesday and will be absent on a pleasure trip for about ten days.

Miss Sallie Greene has returned from Lake Chataugua where she has been posting up on the methods of teaching.

Judge G. B. Swango passed through the city Sunday on his way from Hazel Green to his home in Frankfort.

Rev. A. J. Arrick was in Louisville yesterday to attend a meeting of the State Executive Committee of Christian Endeavor.

Miss Stella Cooper, daughter of Judge John E. Cooper, is quite sick at the home of her father on North Maysville street.

Mrs. Geo. E. Chick left this morning for a week's visit to relatives in Clover Port, Louisville, and other points in Kentucky.

Mrs. Edie Green, daughter of our townsmen G. F. Green, is quite sick with pneumonia at the home of her sister in Shelbyville.

Mrs. Sallie Thompson, Miss Cora Tipton, Miss Kate Smith and daughter Lucy, were among those who went to Louisville yesterday.

Luther Ogg, of the ADVOCATE, and Joe Thompson of Denton Guthrie and Co., are attending the G. A. R. encampment at Louisville.

Mat. Clay, Everett's Barkley and Col. A. W. Hamlin were in Versailles last week to attend the examining trial of Newt Lane.

Col. H. L. Stone, wife and daughter, Miss May and Miss Mamie Thomas, of Louisville, were in the city last week the guest of Geo. W. Baird and wife.

Mrs. Elizabeth Schlegel and brother, Master George, who have been visiting the family of their uncle, Louis Schlegel, at Richmond, returned home Tuesday.

W. T. Moore and family left yesterday for Short Creek, Menefee county, and will be absent from home about two weeks. Mr. Moore will be looking after some lumber interests while he is gone.

Thomas Domigan attended the Paris fair last Thursday.

Chas. Raileff, Will Duty, Roland Moore and Ernest Elkin were in Winchester Sunday.

Brown Corlett of Cincinnati, formerly of this city, is visiting his father's family in this city.

Norwell Benton, of the ADVOCATE, who has been visiting relatives at Shawan, has returned home.

Mr. F. C. Hayes passed through here last week returning from New York, where he had been for three weeks making purchases for his Kentucky stores.

The people of this as well as other sections in Kentucky admire brave men, and the cowardly action of Mr. Bradley will lose him votes all over Kentucky.

Misses Berkley and Ray Wilkerson returned home on Friday from a visit to their uncle Joseph Wilkerson, at Bairds, Ky., while they were there they attended the Kavanaugh Campmeeting.

A. Hazelrigg returned Tuesday from attendance to the Knights Templar meeting at Boston. He spent several days in New York and Washington sight seeing.

Judge Lewis Apperson wife and daughters Misses Lizzie and Hattie returned Sunday afternoon. They attended the Tympani Conclave of the Knights Templar at Boston and spent some time visiting places of interest in eastern cities.

Mrs. E. J. Swetman, of Pacific Grove, Cal., who has been visiting her family's family, J. W. Watson, at Maytown, left for her home Tuesday.

Mrs. Swetman is the mother of nine living children, five girls and four boys. One of her daughters is a special agent of the New York Life Insurance Company with a good salary, and one of her sons has recently developed one of the richest gold mines in California.

Mr. J. B. Cole returned last week from a visit to friends and relatives in Owsley county. Mr. Cole says he has never in all his life seen such large corn crops in Eastern Kentucky, and that the people are very much encouraged with the business outlook, and Democrats are enthusiastic and every one of them and some Republicans will vote the ticket through.

Swango Springs.

Miss Sabina Taubel visited the ladies of the "Dye house" Monday evening.

Dr. Huddleston and father returned home Friday greatly improved. It was hard for the Doctor to leave his fair girl at the Springs.

The new arrivals are Mr. Cal. Arthur, wife and two children of Mason county; Mr. Albright, wife and two children of Millersburg; Mr. Jim Weaver and father of Mason county; Mrs. Rebecca Redmond, near Mt. Sterling.

Bro. Davidson paid a short visit this week. He will return to his home in Ohio in a few days. He was here with his wife and family twelve years ago.

Charlie Ringo, of Menifee county, who is in New Mexico for his health writes that he has gained from 122 to 134 pounds, never felt better, is hard at work and is improving every day.

What Pleases Others Might Not Please You

In every instance, but what pleases an highly educated, up-to-date mechanical expert, who is thoroughly posted on the construction of bicycles, from a wheelman's standpoint, as well as that of a strictly high-grade machine, is a pretty good pointer to buyers who are in search of the best of the market afford.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 15, 1895.

R. F. Maxwell, Mgr. Indiana Bicycle Co., City:

DEAR SIR—Referring to the Waverley bicycle which I bought of you a few weeks ago, I will candidly admit that I am delighted with it. My first impression was one of surprise at the construction and finish of the machine. It is a very fine, ample strong and substantial in construction and every one must admit that it is most graceful in appearance. I consider it a strictly high grade machine; otherwise I should not have bought it. It is all you claim it to be. Wishing you well merited success, I remain yours truly,

ARTHUR COBB,
Chief Engineer Sned & Co., Iron Works.

Call and Examine the wheels at our store.

Chiles, Thompson Grocery Co.,

EXCLUSIVE AGENTS.

Neuralgia

Is the Prayer of the Nerves For

Pure Blood

Pains Relieved
Blood Purified and

Nerves Made Strong by

Hood's Sarsaparilla

"It gives me great pleasure to state

what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for me and my wife. She has been afflicted with neuralgic pains in her head for six years and it settled in her eyes. At times she would be totally blind and have to stay in bed for months.

A short time ago I began to use

Hood's Sarsaparilla and

God, she is able to walk about again.

for months.

At present she is as strong as ever.

WILLIAM H. NUNAMAKER, Judsonia, Ark.

to attend to her

household duties, which she had not done for years.

My own eyes were somewhat harmful, and since taking Hood's Sarsaparilla

the inflammation has left my eyes and my nerves have become quieted. My health

today is better than it has been for several months.

WILLIAM H. NUNAMAKER, Judsonia, Ark.

Hood's Pill's are hand made, and perfect in proportion and appearance. 25¢ per box.

Dental Notice

I have this day associated with me in the practice of Dentistry, Dr. J. L. Sutphin, late of Clarksville, Tenn., a regular graduate of fifteen years' experience.

I know Dr. Sutphin to be proficient in every detail of his profession, and to be a high-toned and honorable gentleman.

D. L. PROCTOR.

Sept. 1, 1895.

Dr. D. L. Proctor, on account of the large patronage which he has built up here in the practice of dentistry, has for some time felt the need of help, in fact he has had more work than he could do, and he has been looking about to find just the kind of man for the place, and in Dr. Sutphin he feels assured he has just the man. Dr. Sutphin is highly recommended as an honorable gentleman and the statements regarding his work are all that can be asked.

It will be the object of this firm not only to do their part of the local work of this place, but to extend their business by drawing from adjoining counties and those east of us, and when it becomes necessary to add additional help it will be done. Such ideas are along the lines of correct business.

Notice

I have no partner and no agent employed to transact any business for me. Refer to me individually, 71 North Limehouse Street, Lexington, Ky.

SIMON WEIL.

I am neither sub-agent for S. Well in buying cattle on orders non-partner when they are bought high with out orders.

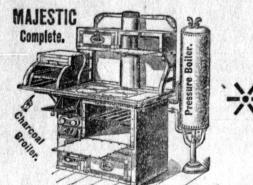

W. H. BUSH, Mt. Sterling, Ky.

7-3

Charlie Ringo, of Menifee county, who is in New Mexico for his health writes that he has gained from 122 to 134 pounds, never felt better, is hard at work and is improving every day.

Everybody

Needs a "MAJESTIC" and it won't be long until they will all have one.

Majestic Ranges

With proper care will last a lifetime. Their great superiority over all others consists in their malleable iron parts that Never Crack or Break.

All others are cast iron. They will do full work with one-half the fuel of any other Range. Try one! The OVEN

Heats More Promptly,

And bakes in less than half the time of others. Buy one! Biscuits are baked in four to six minutes. These Ranges

Roast to Perfection.

Use one! You can't afford to buy any other Range.

REPAIRING AND TIMING

Fine Watches a Specialty.

ALL WORK WARRANTED

and Promptly Done.

C. C. FREEMAN,

Jeweler and Optician,

MT. STERLING, - KY.

Diamonds, Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, Solid

Silver and Silver-plated Ware, Gold Pens,

Spectacles, etc.

Best Goods.

Lowest Prices.

Free Pills.

Send your address to H. E. Bucklen & Co., Chicago, and get a free sample of Dr. King's New Life Pills. A trial will convince you of their merits. These pills are easy in action and particularly effective in the cure of Constipation and Sick Headache, For Malaria and Liver troubles they have been proven invaluable. They are guaranteed to be perfectly free from every deleterious substance and to be purely vegetable. They do not weaken in their action, but by giving tone to the stomach and bowels greatly invigorate the system. Regular 25¢ per box. For sale by W. S. Lloyd, Druggist.

Mr. Charles Reis, the Mt. Sterling saddler and harness dealer, the past week furnished to a Middletown contractor heavy harness for two four-mule logging teams. He also furnished another party a double set of heavy harness to go to Arizona. Mr. Reis by his fair dealing has secured a strong hold on all his customers. They know both Charlie Reis and his goods are as straight as leather.

The Mt. Sterling Female Seminary, Prof. J. L. Tait principal, started out Monday morning with 41 pupils. This number does not include the class in business course and shorthand.

The contract for improving of the Young Peoples meeting at the South Baptist church has been let to William Bros., architects and contractors.

Rev. Everett Gill will conduct the Young Peoples meeting at the South

Baptist church Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

THE ADVOCATE.

Seven Loren, the distinguished Swedish naturalist, is dead.

The Mohican energy denounces electricity as a damnable power.

A chapel measuring 9x12 feet will shortly be erected on Mount Blanc, 10,000 feet above the sea level.

The United States mints during August coined $4,517,600, of which $37,200 was gold and $748,200 silver.

Iron dealers in session in Cleveland report that the present boom in the iron trade has not been equaled in many years.

Iron dealers in session at Cleveland report that the present boom in the iron trade has not been equaled in many years.

County Judge Bullock will appoint women as election judges to receive votes from members of the Lexington Board of Education.

Last year thirty-three persons in London lost their lives by the explosion of coal-oil lamps, and it is therefore proposed to prohibit their sale and use.

Little Frank Snyder, a blue-eyed lad in knee breeches, is in the Raymond Street jail, New York, on a charge of murder. He pushed another boy off the dock and drowned him.

In France it is a punishable offense for any one to give infants under one year old any form of solid food, unless such be ordered by a written prescription signed by a legally qualified medical man.

The smallest clock in the world was on exhibition lately in a jeweler's show window in Goettingen, Germany. The dial measures less than one-third of an inch in diameter and the weight which furnishes the motive force for twenty-four hours is suspended from a woman's hair.

A servant girl at Vienna, Austria, attempted to commit suicide by a novel method. She undressed and then poured boiling water over herself; being interrupted in this, she tried to throw herself from a window. And now she is in her proper sphere—a lunatic asylum.

The funeral of Mrs. Evalina Bliss, a wealthy lady who died in New York last Friday was held Tuesday morning and immediately afterward the daughter of the dead woman, Mrs. Alice Fleming, was arrested at the Colonial Hotel on a charge that she murdered her mother by poison.

Samuel Andrews, a machinist of Hartford, Conn., claims to have perfected a war balloon, which he has sold to a syndicate of New York Cuban insurgents. The balloon has been thoroughly tested in the fields of New Jersey and is said to work perfectly. Instead of the ordinary car it is fitted with an armored box, from which a number of bombs can be suspended and exploded.

Mrs. Bessie St. John, Brooklyn, one of the originators of the Order of the Eastern Star, was arrested and arraigned in the Police Court, Williamsburg, New York, as a vagrant. She had been in Bloomingdale Asylum. Mrs. St. John, who is about 45 years of age, was a protege of the late Robert Morris, who was one of the highest officials of the Masonic Order, and with him founded the Order of the Eastern Star.

Comptroller Bowler has completed his opinion in the sugar bounty cases, and will formally announce it in a few days. There is no reason to doubt the accuracy of the predictions that he will refuse to approve the claims made for sugar bounty. Mr. Bowler will, it is believed, go further than have any of his predecessors, and assert his right to withhold the payment of any claim submitted to him if he doubts the constitutionality of the legislation. —Courier-Journal.

A rumor was recently published that the subordinates of New York city police force were forming an organization to have for its object the raising of a fund of $60,000 to influence members of the next legislature to defeat plans for reorganization of the force. Commissioners Roosevelt and Park took steps Tuesday night to checkmate the scheme by directing Acting Chief Conlia to notify each Captain to read an order to his men, forbidding them to contribute to such fund.

CHINA,

By Her Peculiar Methods,

Responsible For the Recent Massacres.

Bloody Conflict Between Russia and Japan Considered Certain in the Near Future.

Chester Holcomb, who has just returned from China, after 21 years' service in the American Legation at Pekin, says the recent massacre is traceable to the result of the recent Chinese-Japanese war.

"At the commencement of the recent war between China and Japan," said he, "it was generally feared that the lives of foreigners in China would be in greater danger as long as the war lasted. As a matter of fact, there was no practical danger as long as the war lasted, and it is only since the hostilities ceased that the danger has commenced. We have had proof of the fact in the recent massacres, and I think I can explain the reason."

"In the first place, the great mass of Chinese are disappointed with the result of the war, and are taking revenge on all the foreigners whom they can kill with impunity.

"In the second place, the killing and pillage give great encouragement by reason of the degradations committed by hordes of disbanded soldiers all over the country. The Chinese Government has a peculiar method of disposing of its troops at the close of a war. When the soldiers are no longer needed they are discharged from service at the place where they happen to be at that time. The fact that an army may be several hundred or a thousand miles away from home when it is disbanded, and the fact that soldiers may not possess any means of getting home, does not interest the Government in the least. The troops are turned loose, and to use an American expression, they have to 'beat' their way back to the place from whence they came. That they should pillage and commit depredations is, therefore, natural to such people under such conditions, and tranquility will not reign in China for some time to come. Just before I left Japan I learned that an American missionary, who had been laboring near Peking since 1890, had been assassinated and was very cut by a knife. His name is D. Sheffield, and I have known him quite well for years. It is only fair to say, however, that the assailants were arrested and will be tried for their offense. If such prompt action was taken in the cases of the other offenders, the wholesale killing of missionaries in China would be speedily stopped. It is almost impossible, however, to mete out justice to offending Chinese in these interior provinces and the fault is the fault of the Government."

Mr. Holcomb says the most interesting question in the Orient at the present, outside of the missionary massacres and the cholera, is the approaching conflict between Russia and Japan.

"That Russia and Japan will become mixed up in a dispute which will result in war goes without saying," said he, "and the commencement of the actual hostilities is not far off. Then the Japanese have a big grievance against Russia, and Russia is preparing to make things warm for the Japanese. The other day I was told very frankly by Japanese officials who hold high positions in the government that Japan would live to the day when she permitted herself to become mixed up in a war with China. It has given Russia an opportunity which has long waited for."

"No one knows better than I how narrowly Japan escaped a war with Russia when she got through with her in China. The Japanese were so incensed at Russia's attitude in the matter of the cession of the Liao Tung Peninsula that the Japanese officials talked seriously of engaging in a squabble with Russia. I was in Japan at the time, and heard it all. A certain member of the Japanese Cabinet, whose acquaintance I made when he was sent to Peking as the Japanese Minister to China, said to me at the time:

"Russia has six iron-clad battleships. We have but one, and that we captured from the Chinese. If we last he struck it out, with his usual

A GOOD THING - PUSH IT ALONG

BATTLE AX

Plug Tobacco

A Great Big Piece for 10 Cents.

had but four iron-clads, or only three would defend Russia.' That is just what Russia wanted them to do. Russia will yet so aggravate the Japanese that they will declare war. Then Russia will attempt to drive the Japanese out of Korea, where they are now masters of the situation. The Japanese are dictating affairs in Korea, for while the King still remains on the throne, he does nothing that counts in authority. The fight between Russia and Japan will be over Korea, and it will come just as soon as Russia finds that she wants an open port on the Pacific." —Cincinnati Enquirer.

STATE SECRET WELL GUARDED.

An Old-time Project to Purchase Mexican Territory.

In the first year of the Hayes' Administration there was a movement set afoot to have the United States purchase the border states of Chihuahua and Sonora from Mexico for $40,000,000. This is one of the best kept secrets of any Administration, says a Washington dispatch to the Philadelphia Times. The matter was begun by London and New York capitalists, who had bought, or intended to buy, mines or ranches in those States and who wanted them brought under the protection of the American flag before they went farther and began to build railroads. These gentlemen had been to Mexico and made all necessary arrangements with Gen. Diaz, who was then, as he is now, the Dictator of Mexico, for the sale of these two States for $40,000,000. It was stated that Diaz seemed to be very glad to get rid of those troublesome border States, especially as he was certain to secure the railroad communications which were promised as soon as the transfer could be completed. The capitalistic came back from Mexico to induce President Hayes to recommend to the Congress negotiations looking to the proposed purchase.

A number of conferences were held between the capitalists and Stanley Matthews, who was then a Senator and represented the Administration. Matthews was reserved, as a diplomatic agent should be; nevertheless he gave the capitalists encouragement to believe that President Hayes would, in his annual message, carry out their wishes. But Hayes did not do so. It is asserted that he had actually written the paragraph which they desired in his message, being influenced largely by the argument advanced by his friends that the proposed purchase from Mexico would be a brilliant stroke of policy, but at the last he struck it out, with his usual prudence. It is said that he thought of San Domingo, and the opportunity of those capitals had passed forever. This matter has been kept secret until now, and leaked out from an Ohio statesman over a bottle of Chamberlin's wine.

Ed.
Mitchell,
Hardware,
Queensware,
Tinware,
Woodware, Stoves,
AND A FULL LINE OF Agricultural Implements.

LEADERS

That are known throughout the country.

The Celebrated Vulcan Chilled Plow.

Stoddard New Climax

and Tiger Disc Harrows.

Evans' Triple Drag Harrow.

STOVES—all guaranteed to give satisfaction.

Repairs kept in stock for Oliver Chilled, South Bend, Avery's and Bissell Plows.

THE ONLY Strictly Undertaking Establishment IN THIS CITY.

Everything First-Class. New Funeral Car.

Services at Any Hour, Day or Night.

GEORGE C. EASTIN,
No. 12 E. Main Street, — MT. STERLING, KY.

DO YOU WANT TO GET WELL?

Take Matchless Mineral Water!

THE WONDER OF THE AGE.

The Wonder of the Age

at $1.00 per bottle. The Greatest Natural Tonic and Blood Purifier in the World. — See what Dr. L. C. D. says.

"Dear Sir: — The Matchless Mineral Water in my hands has surprised anything I have ever used in my practice for Nervous Diseases, Dyspepsia and Insomnia. The taste of it is so great that they would have to be seen to be believed. It is a great water. Nothing like it."

Write us for Analysis and full particulars. Parties desiring to handle this water would do well by writing us for terms, etc. Address R. F. GORDON, JR. & CO.

General Solicting Agents

153 FIFTH ST., LOUISVILLE, KY.

LIGHTNING HOT DROPS

BREAKS UP A COLD.

SOLED EVERYWHERE—25 AND 50¢ PER BOTTLE. NO RELIEF. NO PAY.

One size contains two and one half times as much as 5¢ bottle.

HERB MEDICINE CO.

SPRINGFIELD, O.

MICHAEL LAUGHLIN,

MANUFACTURE OF

TIN, COPPER AND SHEETIRON WARE

AND DEALER IN

House Furnishings.

Agents for the American and Perfect Filter.

House Guttering, Metalic and Slate roofing.

South Mayville Street.

Mt. Sterling, Ky.

Laughlin's Old Stand.

THE ADVOCATE.

Fire along Boston's water front caused a loss of $150,000.

In Massachusetts a lady cyclist collided with a sulky and a corset steel was forced through her heart.

An editor in Germany has been arrested and his paper confiscated because it contained articles reflecting upon the Emperor.

The Lexington Gazette says the Legislature will be asked to repeal the law against the carrying of concealed weapons so far as it relates to women.

Indianapolis was visited by a dingle last Sunday night. Many houses were flooded. The Telephone Exchange was struck by lightning and burned.

Federal Judge Seaman, at Chicago, discharged from custody several Chinese ordered to be deported, and attacked the constitutionality of the exclusion act.

Miss Gertrude Vanderbilt, who will inherit several millions, and Moses Taylor, a young New York millionaire, are reported to be engaged to marry.

Mohammedans, who attacked a Hindoo procession in India, were fired upon by the police. Five were killed and fifty wounded, five of whom have died.

Nasrulla Khan, the young Afghan whose pretensions to royalty embarrassed the British aristocracy during his protracted visit in London, has at last departed for Paris.

The employees of a furniture company at Cincinnati observed Labor Day by working and donating their wages for that day to a fellow workman, who had lost an arm.

State Inspector Gardner has recommended the rejection of a majority of claims for witness fees in the Fields-Atkins murder trial at Barboursville. There were ninety-two witnesses and the total cost to the State was $2,321 for the last trial.

Great excitement prevails over the closing of the Buena Vista, Iowa, State Bank. Depositors are largely people with earnings of years intrusted to the bank. Its doors were closed and a big crowd filled the streets. It would only need a word to lead to deeds of violence, the business methods of the Lemon family, who ran the institution, having caused great indignation.

WILL ASTONISH THE BUCKEYES.

Unique Way in Which a Kansan Proposes to Advertise the Sunflower State.

C. J. Bell, assistant to Treasurer Wilder, of the Santa Fe road, preparing for a visit to his old home at Washington Court House, O., says a Topeka exchange, and as a part of his equipment has caused to be printed 1,000 cards, which he will distribute upon his arrival in Ohio. Mr. Bell says his former visitors to the East have been spoiled by the fire of questions about Kansas, which he has been obliged to answer, and he has prepared this visiting card with the purpose of avoiding this annoyance. It reads as follows:

"Bettcher sweet life I'm from Kansas."

"Am back East on a visit only, and wouldn't be caught dead here. Look on any map of the United States and you'll find."

"Kansas is the bull's eye."

"Santa Fe route, greatest railroad on earth, has its headquarters in Kansas."

"Kansas didn't do a thing in 1895 but raise 369,432,748 bushels of corn and not a nubbin in the lot. Politicians thick as Spaniards in hedges, statement as scarce as Dagos in heaven."

"She has the largest city in the world without a saloon, but for drug stores? S.A.Y.! You folks make me weary talking about cranks, cyclones and prohibition. Come out and see for yourself that you are a liar."

"Kansas people are not compelled to live on timothy and turnips in the summer and cornbread and persimmons in the winter."

"Increase your slight chance for heaven by living in God's country awhile before you climb or fall down the golden stairs."

"C. J. BELL, of Kansas."

NOT SO AWFULLY SLEEPY.

Indeed, When All Was Reckoned Up He Came Out a Trifle Ahead.

"What station was that?" demanded the passenger in the rear seat, suddenly arousing himself, straightening up and projecting his voice through the dimly lighted car.

The conductor, who was coming down the aisle, stopped and held the lantern close to the speaker's face.

"It was 'Bradgord,'" he replied. "I don't know the man who wanted to get off at Smallsville?"

"I am," rejoined the passenger. "I asked you to wake me up when we got there, and you said you would."

"Did you wake me up?"

"Oh, dad, did you? How far have we gone past Smallsville?"

"Fifty-five miles."

"And you waked me up? Strange I didn't know anything about it!"

"I shock you, called out the name of the station, and you said 'all right' and reached for your hat. I supposed you were wide awake. Several passengers got off there and I took it for granted you were one of them."

"Well, I wasn't. I'm pretty hard to wake up. You ought to have been sure about it. I had friends waiting for me at the station. I'll make an awful mess. I wouldn't have had this happen for a thousand dollars!"

"You can telegraph them, can't you?"

"I suppose I can. What's the next station?"

"Flaxwood."

"Does the next train back stop there?"

"Yes."

"Well, give me a note to the conductor, can't you, telling him to pass me back to Smallville? It's as little as you can do. It wasn't my fault that I got carried past."

The conductor scribbled a few lines on a piece of paper and handed it to him.

"We're coming to Flaxwood now," he said, looking at him sharply. "Are you sure you are awake?"

"I'll get off here, anyhow," responded the passenger grabbing his valise and starting for the door, "whether I'm awake or not."

As the train pulled out of Flaxwood the brakeman standing on the rear platform of the last coach heard a voice calling out in the darkness:

"Hello old fellow! I was afraid you wouldn't be here to meet me. I came all the way on a 50-cent ticket. There's more than a 50-cent ticket, I'm afraid."

The conductor scribbled a few lines on a piece of paper and handed it to him.

"We're coming to Flaxwood now," he said, looking at him sharply. "Are you sure you are awake?"

"I'll get off here, anyhow," responded the passenger grabbing his valise and starting for the door, "whether I'm awake or not."

As the train pulled out of Flaxwood the brakeman standing on the rear platform of the last coach heard a voice calling out in the darkness:

"Hello old fellow! I was afraid you wouldn't be here to meet me. I came all the way on a 50-cent ticket. There's more than a 50-cent ticket, I'm afraid!"

The conductor scribbled a few lines on a piece of paper and handed it to him.

"We're coming to Flaxwood now," he said, looking at him sharply. "Are you sure you are awake?"

"I'll get off here, anyhow," responded the passenger grabbing his valise and starting for the door, "whether I'm awake or not."

As the train pulled out of Flaxwood the brakeman standing on the rear platform of the last coach heard a voice calling out in the darkness:

"Hello old fellow! I was afraid you wouldn't be here to meet me. I came all the way on a 50-cent ticket. There's more than a 50-cent ticket, I'm afraid!"

The conductor scribbled a few lines on a piece of paper and handed it to him.

"We're coming to Flaxwood now," he said, looking at him sharply. "Are you sure you are awake?"

"I'll get off here, anyhow," responded the passenger grabbing his valise and starting for the door, "whether I'm awake or not."

As the train pulled out of Flaxwood the brakeman standing on the rear platform of the last coach heard a voice calling out in the darkness:

"Hello old fellow! I was afraid you wouldn't be here to meet me. I came all the way on a 50-cent ticket. There's more than a 50-cent ticket, I'm afraid!"

The conductor scribbled a few lines on a piece of paper and handed it to him.

"We're coming to Flaxwood now," he said, looking at him sharply. "Are you sure you are awake?"

"I'll get off here, anyhow," responded the passenger grabbing his valise and starting for the door, "whether I'm awake or not."

As the train pulled out of Flaxwood the brakeman standing on the rear platform of the last coach heard a voice calling out in the darkness:

"Hello old fellow! I was afraid you wouldn't be here to meet me. I came all the way on a 50-cent ticket. There's more than a 50-cent ticket, I'm afraid!"

The conductor scribbled a few lines on a piece of paper and handed it to him.

HORSE AND TRACK.

Red Wilkes is credited with nine 2:30 performers, with Onward a close second.

Doug Thomas won six races out of seven starts at the Northwestern Breders' meeting and won $5,750.

Mike Bowerman of Lexington, Ky., has sold Martha Wilkes 2:08 by Alcyone to an agent of the German government.

Peter Duryea, of New York, bought Beuzetta 2:06 by Onward for $16,000 from E. W. Ayres, of Duckers, Ky., on Wednesday.

G. W. Leavitt refused $12,000 for Larabig 2:12½ at Fleetwood Park on Wednesday. The offer was made by Peter Duryea of New York.

Sweepskeeper displaces Angeline, dam of Online 2:04½ and Ontonagon 2:07½, as the dam of the two fastest performers, she having produced Hail Pointer 2:04½ and Star Pointer 2:05½.

The New York Sun says: High-class trotters seem to be in better demand just now than at any time since the panic of 1893. Many notable sales of horses in training have taken place since the opening of the summer campaign.

B. F. Herriott has returned from Galesburg, Ill. He started Red in one race and won second money. Mr. Herriott did not get to see the sort of money Galesburg pays the winners, as they had neither gold nor silver when he called for his money.

Dandy Jim ran away in the second heat at Rochester after winning the first heat in 2:11½. The bit broke and Silman did the circus act by climbing out on his back, but failed to stop him. He was allowed to start again, however, and won third and fourth in 2:12, 2:11.

It seems that they now have sulkies that weigh but sixteen pounds. This fact forcibly illustrates the folly of the present rule as to weights. You can make your sulky as light as you please, but you must put one hundred and fifty pounds on it. What ridiculous nonsense!

Azote won the free-for-all trot at Fleetwood last week in strait heats. Beuzetta got second money, Klamath third; times 3:09½, 2:05½, 2:07. It was a great race and shows that Azote can trot in any company. Beuzetta will make him take a lower record to beat her by Oct. 1.

In speaking of the Northwestern Breeders' meeting, the Chicago Tribune says: "The pacing horses have been more appreciated than the trotters during the present meeting, simply because they have furnished the most exciting contests." The same may be said of many other meetings. The pacer is decidedly an uncertain quantity in racing, as they develop great speed when least expected.

WHAT THEY ARE DOING.

A woman at Tulara, Cal., is running the engine for a lumber mill. She is manager of the whole mechanical outfit, and repairs the machinery when necessary.

The most prolific writer in Russia is said to be Mme. Irma Fedosova, a peasant of the province of Petrosawodski, who has given to the world more than 10,000 poems.

Lady Tennyson has set to music her husband's poem, "Sweet and Low." She used to sing this song to him, and as he was very fond of it she has decided to perpetuate it.

Mme. Jeanne Beaubien, who took her bachelor's arts degree when only sixteen, two years ago, has just passed a brilliant examination for the licentiate of philosophy at the French Sorbonne.

Mrs. Thomas C. Platt, wife of New York's Republican leader, is the inventor of an improved case for packing oranges. The lady is also owner of a successful orange grove in Florida.

A young woman of Emporia, Kan., has invented a new calling for women. She is a professional companion for women whose husbands are away, and she charges five dollars a week for her services.

Daniel Mayer has concluded an engagement with Mme. Nordling for forty-eight nights at a fee of $1,000 per night. Mme. Clave has been engaged by Abby & Grau for $100,000 for fifty nights.

Mrs. Nancy Cooper, of Dover, Mo., familiarly known as "Grandma Cooper," celebrated her 100th birthday on the 7th inst. Relatives and friends flocked to greet her, and she stood the strain remarkably well.

COURT DIRECTORY.

CIRCUIT COURT.

JUDGE ED. C. COOPER presiding Third Monday in January, Tuesday and Wednesday in September.

JUDGE ED. C. O'KEAR presiding Tuesday after Third Monday in January, April, July and October.

COUNTY COURT.

Third Monday of each month. M. STERLING CITY COURT—CIVIL BRANCH. JUDGE R. R. TURNER, presiding, First Tuesday in each month.

PROFESSIONAL.

DR. J. A. SHIRLER, Physician, No. 6 West Main street, up stairs.

JOHN M. ELLIOTT, Attorney-at-Law, 100 Court Street, First Floor.

J. M. OLIVER, Attorney-at-Law and Surveyor, 31 Main Street. All collections and real estate transactions except those concerning the same promptly attended to, and a short time after the same are desired. Office, Court Street, opposite Court House.

A. HAZELBARGER, Attorney-at-Law & Co. Atty., Office, Court House, Mt. Sterling, Ky.

M. S. TYLER, TYLER & APPERSON, Lewis Apperson Attorney-at-Law, 100 Main street, next door to Postoffice. Office, Court Street, opposite Court House.

W. A. DEHAVEN, Attorney-at-Law, 100 Main street, Mt. Sterling, Ky. Office, Court Street. Will practice in all Courts of the Commonwealth.

D. R. D. L. PROCTOR, Dentist, 100 Court Street, Mt. Sterling, Ky.

DR. HOWARD VAN ANTERWICK, Dentist, Office one door West of Postoffice, second story.

FINLEY E. FORD, Lawyer, Mt. Sterling, Kentucky.

H. CLAY MCKEE, Attorney-at-Law, Office upstairs, Main street.

B. F. DAY, Lawyer, Office over Exchange Bank, Mt. Sterling. Will practice in all the Courts of Kentucky, and the Federal Courts.

WOODFORD & CHENault, ATTORNEYS AT LAW, 100 Court Street, Mt. Sterling, Ky. Will practice in the counties of Montgomery, Bath, Monroe, Powell, Clark and Bourbon and the Appalauchian Court.

H. E. PREWITT, Attorney-at-Law, Office, Court Street and Broadway, Mt. Sterling, Ky. Will practice in all the Courts of the Commonwealth. Special attention given to Collections.

ESTABLISHED 1859, DR. J. C. H. HALL, DENTIST, Mt. Sterling, Ky., Capital Stock $100,000. B. F. Peters Pres., H. R. French, Cashier.

DR. W. C. NESBITT, Dentist, Office on Main street, upstairs, opposite Dr. R. Drane's office, Mt. Sterling, Ky.

J. G. & R. H. WINN, ATTORNEYS AT LAW, Office: 14 Court St., Mt. Sterling, Ky.

W. H. GATEWOOD, AUCTIONEER, Experience, and charges reasonable. Address me on Mt. Sterling, Ky.

JNO. B. PHILIPS, Attorney-at-Law, Office up stairs in Traders' Deposit Bank, will practice in Montgomery and adjoining counties.

CONTRACTORS.

I am before my people for their Painting, Paper hanging, and other work. Those desiring anything done in my line to me before placing work. All orders, etc.

A. SCHLEGEL'S will be promptly attended to.

M. R. HAINL, GORE.

MISS JENNIE B. died night of September 10, 1895. TEACHER OF Voca. and Spoken English.

Piano and Tonic S. GORE.

A LIMITED number of pupils taken during the summer months.

FALL GOODS NOW IN THE HOUSE.

FINE DRESS GOODS a specialty; a fine line in solid colors, embracing all the new and fancy weaves. Our buyer has secured the BEST in the market and you can rest assured that if you buy from us you will have the correct thing. A full and new stock in Underwear, Hosiery, blankets, Notions, Etc., has been added, and we are ready to supply your wants for another season. Our prices, too, are right. We will not be undersold on any article kept in a dry goods store, quality considered. Call and see us.

GRUBBS & HAZEL'G

CARR & DICKINSON, COMMISSION MERCHANTS OF LEAF TOBACCO.

EVERY DAY AT DAVENPORT'S WAREHOUSE, RICHMOND, VIRGINIA.

INDIAN CREEK COAL.

ALL OTHER GRADES OF COAL.

Indian Creek Coal.

Which has an established reputation for being the best, is our leader. Heretofore the railroad could not bring enough to supply the trade, but with the Coalroad a wide gauge this trouble will be overcome, and parties desiring to fill their houses can be supplied. Also a large stock of Rough Lumber.

INDIAN CREEK COAL and LUMBER CO.,

Office on R. R. foot Sycamore St.

B. F. ROBINSON, Manager.

THE ADVOCATE.

The prayer meeting at the Southern Presbytery church will be conducted by Rev. Everett Gill.

Johnson's Oriental Soap is far superior to all the other so-called medicinal soap for beautifying the complexion. For sale by J. T. Tipton Druggist.

The Hon. James P. Tarvin, of Covington, having been secured by the Young Men's Democratic Club, will speak in the Court House in this city next Monday afternoon, September 16, at 2 o'clock. Mr. Tarvin is a strong man and is thoroughly up in politics, an instructive and pleasant speaker. Everybody is invited to hear this distinguished speaker.

The first race for the American's cup was won Saturday by the American, Defender. She defeated Valkyrie III, by eight minutes and forty-nine seconds. The English boat got off in the lead and for a time held her place but the American boat soon got down to her work and rapidly out-footed the Britisher. It looks as if the Cup will stay with us.

Simon Well, of Lexington, shipped from the yards here Friday, for M. Goldsmith, 12 carloads of prime export cattle. He bought of Col. Thos. Johnson 90 head; of J. T. Highland, 43 head; of Nim Byrd, 27 head; of J. E. Gaitskill, 38 head. These cattle were bought at from $4 to 5 cents. The J. E. Gaitskill cattle are said to be the finest bunch of cattle that have left the State this year. Everyone of them were beauties. The bunch was dehorned and averaged 1642 pounds.

All Free.

Those who have used Dr. King's New Discovery know its value, and those who have not, have now an opportunity to try it Free. Call on the advertised Druggist and get a Trial Bottle, Free. Send your name and address to H. E. Buckley & Co., Chicago, and get a sample box of Dr. King's New Life Pills, Free, as well as a copy of Guide to Health and Household Instructor, Free, all of which is guaranteed to do you good and cost you nothing at W. S. Lloyd's Drugstore.

The G. A. R. encampment is in session at Louisville. The Falls City has made gigantic preparations to entertain the monster meeting. This is the first meeting of the G. A. R. south of the Ohio river, and special efforts were put forth to make the occasion a memorable one. Kentucky's reputation for hospitality is in Louisville's keeping this week but it will not suffer in the least. To this meeting many ex-Confederates will go and the ex-soldiers of each army will have a good time swapping old yarns and reounting experiences.

An Enjoyable Event.

The Misses Stephens' entertained the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor at their beautiful home on Harrison avenue last Thursday evening. All of the members of the society of this city were present, and they all as one pronounced the Misses Stephens the most charming hostesses it has ever been their good fortune to be the guests of. After about two hours of romping in the large and beautifully illuminated yard, the young people were served to a most palatable luncheon which they most willingly consumed.

The latter part of the evening was spent in singing praise to the one for whose cause these young people have so long and faithfully labored. As the hour of twelve was nearing, this joyful company adjourned to their homes, few were they undoubtedly spent the remainder of the night in dreams of the royal manner in which they had been entertained. M.

right Hot Drops—
claim—What a Funny Name!
the col—Very True, but it Kills All Pain,
—Co—Sold Everywhere. Every Day—
Without Relief, There is No Pain

Stray Hog.

Taken up a stray on Wm. Bridge's farm a black barrow, will weigh about 100 pounds. Owner can have same by paying charges and for this notice.

7-21.

W. J. PENNELL.

HORSE AND TRACK.

C. J. Hamlin will send a few horses to Europe this winter.

Directum 2:05 will not be shipped to California this fall, but will be kept East for a season in the stud in 1896.

The Toledo Sunday Courier says Andy McDowell was greatly displeased that Salisbury let McHenry drive Azote in his trial against time at Fleetwood last week, while McDowell was at Toledo with Alix.

When Spofford was the champion of Europe, defeating Valkyrie, Shadeland Delmonica, Blue Bells and others, he trotted the winning horses in 2:15 9-10, 2:18 3-10 and 2:18 9-10.

Azote now has a mark of 2:04.

He trotted at Galesburg last week in that time. Azote can probably defeat any trotter in a race now on the turf.

Kentucky's $25,000 Futility will be trotted at Lexington, Tuesday, October 8, the first day of the great Fall Trotting Meeting of the T. H. B. Association. All railroads will sell excursion tickets at one fare for the race.

4-7t

The fake at Belmont Park, Philadelphia, last week between Jo Patchen and John R. Gentry was a disgrace to Cuny & McHenry. If drivers of fast horses would quit such business it would be a great benefit to the horse interests as well as to regular trotting meetings.

William Corbett has not had his usual amount of good luck with the San Mateo horses this year. He said a few days ago that unless a number of the lame ones in his string get better, and certain others show a decided improvement in form, he will not attend any more meetings, butt return at an early date to California, taking with him the entire outfit.

Andy English sold last week his green pacer, Red, to Buckley's parlor at a good price. We can't give the price but can say that it was up in four figures. Red has been handled since he was purchased out of a wagon by Mr. English by B. F. Hartwick, and it shows that he is a first-class developer of speed. Red paces miles as good as 2:11 in his work at Galesburg, Ill. The horse is fast. His breeding is unknown.

Azote's easy victory in the free-for-all trot at Fleetwood has caused much speculation among horsemen as to how fast this big California is. There will be a chance to find out in a short time, for Mr. Salisbury is anxious to find out the limit of his speed as soon as a good day and track can be found, together with the proper financial consideration. Azote is a very much misunderstood horse. The popular impression of him seems to be that he is a big awkward gelding whose speed is one of the accidents of the turf. It is true he is big, but there are few horses that come more honestly by a tendency to trot fast and stick to it than he. R. J. Boyle, writing in the Sunday Inter-Ocean says: "See here young man," said the gray-haired Californian, "do you know that this horse that you refer to as 'old Azote' is only eight years old? Do you know that he is one of the largest and handsomest horses that ever trotted? Do you know he is the fastest horse on earth? Don't let me hear you calling him 'old Azote' any more?" Of the two stars in Mr. Salisbury's stable, Alix and Azote, the latter is undoubtedly the fastest of the two. After the exhibition that Alix made at Fleetwood last Thursday is very doubtful whether she will trot a mile in better than 2:06 on the track. Her speed seems to be a reminiscence of other days, and she is getting longer for the little mare. She is still a drawing card, however, and besides her Fleetwood engagement she picked up an easy $2,000 at Toledo by giving an exhibition on a half-mile track.

Elder Thomas, who is pastor of the Christian church at Sharpsburg, closed a successful revival meeting at Side View last night. Up to yesterday there were 16 confessions. The meeting was full of interest from its opening to the close and Mr. Thomas regretted the duty which called him to his studies at the Bible College at Lexington should make it needful for him to close so very interesting a meeting.

Elder Thomas, who is pastor of the Christian church at Sharpsburg, closed a successful revival meeting at Side View last night. Up to yesterday there were 16 confessions. The meeting was full of interest from its opening to the close and Mr. Thomas regretted the duty which called him to his studies at the Bible College at Lexington should make it needful for him to close so very interesting a meeting.

Monthly Crop Report.

Since my last report we have had another month of good growing weather, and the prospect is a flattering one indeed for the farmers of the State. In most of the counties good rains have fallen, while from those countries where drouth has prevailed reported, correspondents saying not enough, but very helpful to growing corn and tobacco. Where stock water was scarce the ponds and creeks have been partially supplied. All correspondents agree that the early corn is now past the danger line, is curving up nicely, and will be the heaviest known in years.

The Government report for August places the average condition of corn in this State at 118, which average exceeds that of any State named except Missouri, 115, and Texas, 113.

Correspondents report the outlook for tobacco in some sections as improving, while in Trigg, Christian and some other western counties, complaint of warm weather is made. From Trigg the correspondent says: "The worm is getting in its work in lively style, and will damage the crop in spite of all that can be done." From Christian: "Tobacco crop fine, but the worms are destroying it."

From the county of Madison: "Pastures look green as they did last spring; corn the best in years; tobacco very spotty; worms very bad."

In the larger tobacco growing countries the ravages of the worm have reduced the average several points since my last report. Pastures are good, vegetables abundant, melons plentiful, and apples in greater abundance than ever known before in this State.

WHEAT.

The average yield of wheat is not as large as expected, the rains having destroyed much of it in the shock and stalk. It is placed at 10 bushels per acre.

TOBACCO.

Referring to the reports of correspondents above, it will be seen that tobacco has not done so well, but it is to be hoped that the good weather of the past week will greatly benefit it. The per cent. is placed at 80.

PASTURES.

Pastures throughout the State were never better at this season. The per cent. is placed at 100.

CORN.

All correspondents report the heavy crop of corn for years. The condition is placed at 109, and the acreage, as compared with last year, at 110.

GARDEN PRODUCTS.

All sections of the State report a heavy crop of all kinds of garden products. Percent, 105.

STOCK.

All stock in good condition. The per cent, 91.

OATS.

Since my last report, returns show a decrease in the yield of oats of two bushels per acre on last estimate. Average yield per acre placed at 27 bushels.

HEMP.

The returns are so meager as to it is impossible to give a fair average, only a few counties reporting. The per cent. is placed at 100.

NICHOLAS McDOWELL,
Commissioner.

Sept. 6, 1895.

Wrought Iron Range Company, St. Louis, Sep. 5th, 1895.

M. L. P. LACE, Mt. Sterling.—

Dear Sir:

"Sometime during September 1894 we had occasion to congratulate everyone in our traveling department upon the large increase in shipment of 'Home Comfort' ranges, which we attributed not solely to the superior merit of goods that we manufactured, but largely to the zeal industry, and personal efforts of our traveling men. Since that time our sales have increased steadily until orders for the month past (August) exceeded in numbers those of any previous month in the history of our business. We received forty-two car-load orders, not including those sent to our Canadian factory. Such results are very gratifying to us and show conclusively that our business is still in its infancy and without limit to its growth, and we feel confident that if everyone in the traveling department will continue to exert the same energies as last month, it is only a question of time when we will hear praises of 'Home Comfort' in every civilized country on the globe.

Yours truly,
WROUGHT IRON RANGE CO.

Monthly Crop Report.

LIKE A CHURCH.

Our store is like a church in one way; everybody is welcome. They don't have to pay to get in, or to get out either.

We want you to come and see what we consider the best Grocery in town.

Whether you buy or not rests with your judgment.

A. BAUM & SON,
GROCERS.

Mt. Sterling, Ky.

MT. STERLING
FEMALE SEMINARY.

A FIRST-CLASS

Collegiate School
for Girls,

LOCATED AT—

88 MAYSVILLE STREET,
(The Denton property.)

A full course of the very best instruction in the South, secured for all departments of Music, Painting, Drawing, Education, Deafness, Mathematics, French, German, the Natural Sciences, etc., etc.

Weekly lectures on Physiology and Hygiene by the best physicians, as follows: Mt. Sterling, Mouth and Teeth; Atlanta, Topography; History of the State, free to students and parents.

The Art Department will be controlled by the Principal, and the best artists will be engaged who will also have general supervision over the work.

Special courses in Shorthand and Typewriting and Commercial studies under personal supervision of the Principal. Night classes in this department will be opened by young men.

TERMS

Accord with those of Female Colleges all over Kentucky, as follows: Primary Grades, 20 weeks 15 00; Grammar Grades, 26 weeks 20 00; Collegiate Department, 30 weeks 25 00; Board, fuel, lights, etc., 20 weeks 25 00.

For further particulars address J. L. TAIT,
Principal Mt. Sterling Female Seminary,
50-52 Maysville Street, Mt. Sterling, Ky.

Goodwin's High School
For Boys.

THE EIGHTH ANNUAL SESSION WILL BEGIN THE

First Monday in September.

Boys and young men prepared to enter any University or College or given a practical business course.

For Catalogue and further particulars Address:

M. J. GOODWIN, A. M., Principal
Box 328, Mt. Sterling, Ky.

J. T. BOARMAN,
ARCHITECT

Contractor and Builder

Recently from Louisville, soliciting your business. Estimates made. Office at Indian Creek Coal & Lumber Co., with B. F. Robinson, Manager.

Tinware !
Repairing !
Pumps, Etc.

Our stock of Tinware is completely made from the superior quality of Tin. We sell these goods cheap.

From our stock of PUMPS any one can be supplied. We have all kinds at all prices.

Roofing and Guttering are our specialties. We are well known for doing all kinds of work and have a great deal of experience of men, and we are to do it in good material, experienced labor and fair prices are any inducements.

William Bros.,
EAST MAIN STREET.TABLER'S PILE
BUCK EYE PILE
OINTMENT

CURES NOTHING BUT PILES.

A SURE and CERTAIN CURE known for 15 years as the BEST REMEDY for PILES.

MADE BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

Preserved by RICHARDSON MED CO. ST. LOUIS.

For Sale.

Two extra thoroughbred southdown rams, also 55 excess ewes.

5-3t J. D. REED.

Good Seed Rye.

I have for sale about 300 bushels of prime seed rye. R. B. YOUNG, 4-4t

Mt. Sterling, Ky.

For Rent.

McMahan cottage, on Elm street.

Apply to JOHN CORBETT.

For Sale.

Four thoroughbred black berkshire pigs. Very fine.

MICHAEL SCHLOSSER, Mt. Sterling, Ky.

Good pine tobacco sticks at $3.50 per thousand.

5-4t STAR PLANING MILL CO.